Rabbi Says:

"This year we are enslaved, next year we will be free, this year we are in this place, next year we will have an inheritance of peace." (The Passover Haggadah)

On the first Thursday of last month I began my day with the news of the massacre of 8 young Jewish men at the hands of a Palestinian gunman. I gathered the names of the victims for addition to our memorial list and in the midst of my anger, sadness, disappointment and a host of other emotions, I prepared to lead the congregation in a prayer of healing. I mentioned the one young man's name I had who was injured and had not died, and before I knew it I was telling the congregation to pray for all the innocent injured on both sides in the current strife in Israel.

Afterward, I thought about what I had done. Of course, it was the right thing to do, but still it gave me pause. Not about my actions and what our Judaism teaches us, "All Human life is sacred." The book of Leviticus continues, "Thou shalt Love thy neighbor as thyself," and Rabbi Hillel adds, "That which is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor". All of these ideas are what generated my not being divisive in my prayer of healing but of being inclusive.

President's message

Spring is here! On a personal note warmer weather always gets me excited. Plants are blooming and I get to go outside and play in the dirt. Who ever said mud is for kids hasn't gotten down to earth and experienced it. I love to get together with friends that like to commune with nature and have planting parties. BBQ's generally follow and we set play dates with our dogs for the season before it gets too hot.

This spring season I look forward to our Temple Passover Dinner that will be held on April 20th. We had so much fun last year; we decided to have it again this year. So look for the flyer and sign up soon. We are not going to turn anyone away, but we do need to know how many to set up for and prepare enough food. So look for the flyers, spread the news, and invite your friends and family. AND don't forget to sign up early!!!

Come share in the Fun! This is our 50th year and our committee for our celebration is under way. More ideas, helpful hands and man power are always welcome. At last years Harvest Ball we had so much fun and so many baskets for everyone to bid on, almost everyone got to take home something. This year we are going to have an even bigger event. Come join us and help plan our 50th Golden Anniversary Gala.

Members in good standing, you are invited to your temple board meetings and see what makes our temple tick (and even get a chance to become involved in the creation of our next years board.) Held the 2nd Tuesday each month, see how democracy, without nasty politics, works. It is time for nominations; our elections for board members will take place in July. As a member, your interests should be known so the temple can be what you want it to be.

Have a wonderful spring... into the future.

Lisa De Luca
President

What gave me the most time of introspection was how imprisoned are those who can only pray for their own people. I watched the militants in Gaza, in the West Bank and in East Jerusalem, praising their fighters and praying for their healing, while reviling our injured and our wounded. My pity for them.

We, on the other hand, have the freedom to pray for all mankind or womankind. Our Torah begins with the creation of the first man, not the first Hebrew, meaning we are to always remember we are all part of one source. We are free to bring all to our personal "sedars", our meals of freedom. From that we can hope to empower others to be free enough that they can pray for a fallen adversary.

I now know the freedom my Christian neighbors have when they talk about 'turning the other cheek' in the face of violence. I am not there yet, but I do envy them.

For now I will envision a world united in Freedom of Caring for all who are sick, injured, wounded and handicapped. I will pray "Next year in Jerusalem", a Jerusalem rebuilt with love instead of hate, furnished with flowers instead of bullets and enchanted with melodies of peace and not symphonies of gunfire." And I will dream of that Jerusalem, and that our 'inheritance of peace' will be just so.
B'hava and Hag Heruteinu Sameah,
Rabbi Mark

Relay For Life

will be held June 21, 2008

This year's event theme is "Road Trip".

Each year, across the nation, one event brings together entire communities to take part in the fight against cancer. That event is the American Cancer Society Relay For Life. It's a time and place where people come to celebrate those who have survived cancer, remember those we've lost, and fight back against a disease that touches too many lives

If you want to be a part of the fight against cancer, Sign up today for the Relay for life of Burbank with the temple office so we may get a packet set up for you.

SISTERHOOD

The joint was jumpin', happy chaos everywhere. I'm talking about the Purim dinner Fran and her committee of Toby, Rose, Shirley, Bernice, Sylvia, Lucy and Bertha put on for us. These ladies worked long hard hours to make this event a success. In addition to abundant and delicious food, we had two star attractions: Ian Kranitz and his always-incredible music (this man is fantastic) and our junior choir led by Robin Kreitzberg. Zoey Rosen, Katelyn Rosen, Rachel Lubell, Sarah Pacifici, Nicolas Zevallos, Veronica Daou, Kayla Daou, Jessica Berger, Adam Gross and Sarah Gross wowed everyone in the room with their songs, skits and enthusiasm. Kids, take a bow. It was fun beyond words.

Bernie & Toby Berman want to thank the Sisterhood for all the help they offered for their 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration on March 21st at the Temple. All in attendance enjoyed the night.

Women's Seder: An invitation is extended to all Temple women and their friends to join us at our Seder table as we celebrate Passover. We will be reading from the Haggadah, have a Seder plate and serve a light Passover dinner. Leona Zollman started organizing this for us a few years ago and each year it gets more meaningful and beautiful. Call her to make your reservation. There is no charge but we do need to know how many to plan for. The Seder will be on Tuesday evening, April 15 at 6:30 PM.

Family Cucina Italiano and Karaoke Afternoon. It's still our Hi Tea but with an Italian twist. The date is May 4 at 3:00 PM. Look for flyers and further information on this.

BBQ/Silent Auction: Sisterhood will be teaming up with the Men's Club for our annual BBQ/Silent Auction. This year it will be on June 21st. We will again be auctioning off baskets so if you have any items to donate for these baskets, please get in touch with Fran at (818) 920-0426.

Last month Jerry Engelberg delivered another load of toys to the Childrens Hospital. These toys go a long way to help cheer and heal a sick child. Thank you for your generous donations.

Coming Up:

Tuesday, April 15 – Women's Seder 6:30 PM

Sunday, May 4 – Karaoke Hi Tea 3:00 PM

Tuesday, May 20 – Regular meeting 7:30 PM

We pride ourselves on our service to the Temple and the community. We are always receptive to new ideas. Our president, Fran Bernstein, will be happy to hear from you. Call her at 818-920-0426. She will be glad to fill you in on what we do here and answer any questions you may have.

Havurahs!

Havurah 007's last month's meeting consisted of a brunch and lively discussion group. The Zollmans will be in charge of planning their next meeting.

Simcha/L'Chaim Havurah was together at the Sisterhood Purim dinner. In April, they will be meeting at Arda's home for a Passover Seder.

The Burbank Days of Remembrance Commemoration, Yom Hashoah, will take place this year on Tuesday, April 29 at 7:45 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 524 N. Buena Vista Street. The event is sponsored by the Burbank Human Relations Council together with fourteen Burbank churches and the two Jewish Temples.

We are proud and very pleased to have Dr. Michael Berenbaum as our speaker. He is a writer, lecturer, professor, author and editor of many scholarly books. From 1988-1993, he served as Project Director of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. He will speak about "Holocaust Remembrance In An Age of Genocide."

There will be Memorial Candle Lighting by survivors of the Holocaust, a Kaddish and readings by representatives of the sponsoring religious organizations. Rabbi Mark Sobel and Cantorial Soloist Sharon Mack will also participate.

A reception will take place following the program. There is no admission charge and the public is invited. For more information, contact Sylvia Sutton at 818-842-3935.

To most members of Temple Beth Emet, life goes on with little understanding of the people that are constantly at work to make our Temple one of which we can be proud.

If you have ideas to contribute or if you would like to be on the board this next fiscal year, please contact Lisa De Luca. She will be happy to listen to your suggestions.
