Rabbi Says:

"You shall guard my times of rest and fear that which comes from holiness."
 (Lev.26:2)

As I was preparing for Shabbat services one Friday night last month, I came across the passage above. It struck me because I would have thought the Torah would have stated the opposite, "Guard what comes from Holiness and be afraid of what is from restfulness." But as I thought more about the meaning of the passage, I saw its true beauty. In this world there are those who would tell us where, when and how to be holy. They would tell us that holiness unto itself must be guarded, protected, maintained and exalted. Of course, this is always joined by "my way is the HOLY way." This is what is to be feared, that our Judaism becomes determined only by the "HOLY" times, not the times of rest. Some time ago, I read a book entitled, "Terror in the Name of God". It speaks of the unspeakable acts people of faith, our own and others, have committed, to further their version of belief. The author, Mark Jurgensmeyer, terms it "Messianism" meaning that their brand of Holiness will bring about the end of days and the coming of the Righteous Age.

I have the most magnificent congregation, Why? You ask. Because the congregants do acts to usher in the Righteous Age, without "the holiness" of others, informally, privately, and at rest. One of the basic tenets of Judaism is to act righteously, not necessarily in a "HOLY" manner, but always, not only at shul, but "when you liest down and when you walkest by the

President's message

It is the beginning of summer already and the weather has us running for cover of shade and air-conditioning.

It is also the end of my term as President and the beginning of a new board.

We have sadly seen Maureen Gold step down as director as her eyesight has been failing. Her spirit, however, is as lively as ever. We know we will have her at all our events for quite sometime and enjoy her energy for life.

Another director, Marva Felchlin, who has been working very hard organizing our library, is also stepping down to take on other pursuits. Thanks to Marva and to her efforts we will soon have a working library as a resource for research, pleasure and guidance in Jewish culture.

You will find in this issue a list of Nominees that are running for office and the date of the meeting for elections. All members in good standing may attend. If you wish to become a member of the board or know someone that you wish to nominate, please attend or contact the office. Do not be shy about this opportunity.

In the past two years as President, I have found myself surrounded by friendships and loving kindness and because of this, it is hardly the end of my service to the board. I will look forward to continuing to give my time and energy to the temple with a heart.

way”( Deut. 6:7). In other words, my congregants guard over their times of rest so that they perform acts of loving-kindness even when resting. Especially our children. These young people perform G-dly acts of Righteousness, often and without prompt. I know. I am the Educational Director. I see them on Shabbat and how they learn, absorb and perform whether in the Junior Choir, the Matzah Bakery, the Parshat Hashavua Class, their Bar or Bat Mitzvah studies and from the Adult questions they ask in Confirmation Class. More importantly, I watch them during Kiddush time ( our version of recess) when they informally interact and perform their acts of righteousness with their teachers, their classmates and their friends. They are active participants in our prayers, but they also bring their own brand of delicious tension to the ceremony/ recess time. It is truly righteousness in the spirit of rest and relaxation.

As the summer months approach us, please take time to guard your times of relaxation, preserving them to perform spontaneous acts of righteousness. Also be fearful of acting too HOLY as your narrowness of path may exclude an excursion into unplanned Tzedakah. I have only one request, with no Shabbat School the next morning, perhaps you could bring the kids to services. That way their spontaneity will become our spontaneity and their unbridled curiosity our curiosity for new ways of Righteousness.

Kaitz Sameach B'ahava,

Rabbi Mark

Beloved Member Passes

Temple Beth Emet regretfully announces that Helen Pappert, long time member of the Temple who served as Recording Secretary and Sisterhood President, passed away on May 20, 2008. Helen was loved by all who knew her and her contributions to Temple Beth Emet will live on through her handwork that she designed and made; the artistic garter used on the Torah during services, the beautiful Torah cover used during the High Holiday season, her prayer shawl, as well as the cover for the table in the entryway, which she donated. The thoughts and prayers of the Temple community are with her family. She is survived by her sister Elsbeth Whitten of Sarasota, Florida, her daughter Marilyn, son Robert and his wife Linda, grandchildren Josh and Kaitie, and Marilyn's beloved Border Collie, Bear. A memorial service will be held at the Temple on June 22, 2008 at 2:00 PM.

SISTERHOOD

Our beloved Helen Pappert passed away on Tuesday, May 20, 2008. Helen was a past president of Sisterhood. Everywhere you look, from our torah cover to torah girdle to a dozen or so other items she handcrafted, there is some memento of Helen. She loved our Temple and we loved her. Her passing has created a deep void that cannot be filled.

We will be naming the gift shop "The Helen Pappert Gift Shop" in her honor.

At our last meeting, Sisterhood voted to donate funds for the purchase of 50 new Shabbat prayer books. These books will have name plates inserted as donated by the Sisterhood.

Karaoke fun

Sisterhood will be holding its annual Donor Luncheon on June 7th. This luncheon is our way of thanking the ladies who worked above and beyond the call of duty for our Sisterhood this past year. At that time we will be installing officers for the coming term. Officers are: President, Fran Bernstein; Treasurer, Arda Paley; Corresponding Secretary, Leona Zollman; Publicity, Shirley Abramson; Donor Chairperson, Toby Berman; Telephone Chairperson, Bernice Dacher; Oneg Shabbat Chairperson, Lois Jones; Membership/Sunshine Chairperson, Ruth Glick and Historian, Bertha Yaras,

With that being said, we have decided to pause to catch our breath. You'll still see us serving at Oneg Shabbats, Bar/Bat Mitzvahs and running the silent auction at the Men's Club barbecue, but for the most part Sisterhood will be taking some time off from our usual activities for a well deserved rest.

Havurahs!

New Chavurah Group Forming

CHAVURAH is commonly translated as "fellowship," and is derived from the Hebrew root that means "friend" or "friendship".

We are currently looking for families with Hebrew School age children to develop new friendships while having fun.

See flyer in Temple foyer. Call Elaine at (818) 439-4914 if interested in starting this new and exciting CHAVURAH.

I want to talk to you a little about our Childrens Hospital toy donations. The toy box in our foyer just keeps filling up and filling up with wonderful toys donated by the generous folks at Temple Beth Emet. These toys go a long way in cheering a sick child who must spend many, often painful, hours in bed.

Don't forget, the hospital not only cares for the very young children but teens as well. Some of the things teen girls especially like are jewelry sets, make up and bath and body lotions and gels. (Just because they are sick doesn't mean they don't want to look and feel pretty). The boys like hand-held electronic games and model cars. Of course, all teens love CDs. The volunteers can't seem to be able to keep enough of these things on hand.

I am very proud of our Temple for being so generous. You should be proud as well.

Shirley Abramson

President's Message : (continued from page 2)

I am looking forward to starting a few new recreational programs that might interest some of you. So stay alert for flyers. I'd like to see what interests you may suggest for us to start. I say there are plenty of responsibilities for us to take on, but we have to make time to have fun too!

With lots of love to all, I say goodbye as President and hello to the future as Past President.

Sincerely,

Lisa De Luca
