About Morris Gold

Morris Gold was one of the founding members of Temple Beth Emet, one of its Presidents, and a strong supporter of its religious school.

Morris Gold was an intelligent, hard working, generous man who never let life's trials, tribulations and tragedies slow him down or get him down. He was the kind of man who was committed to his family, to his synagogue, and to his country. He had many passions including reading, writing (especially Temple press releases) and loving life. But the greatest of Morrie's passions was learning new things and always sharing his learning with others. As we are commanded to do, "learn so you may teach," Morrie did. He was a man who had strong convictions but could change if he found his ideas were not all in the best interest of the Temple. He was a man who loved quiet and solitude, yet he could be quite loud when the Temple needed defending. Most of all, Morrie was the person new people always met when they came to services because he would go out and greet them.

That is why the religious school is named for Morrie. He is what education should be – quiet sometimes and loud other times. Teaching you to have strong opinions but allowing you to change them when presented with new information. Most of all, education, like Morrie, should go out and greet you and make you feel welcome. This is what we aim for our school. This is who Morris Gold was and that is why our school bears his name. May his life be an inspiration to us all and may all out students learn from his example.

Welcome Letter

August 2011, Elul 5771

Dear Parents and Students,

To our returning students, welcome back. To all of our students, Barukim HaBaim, you bless us with your coming. To you parents, thank you so much for allowing us the honor of educating your children. We at Temple Beth Emet believe that all who bring us their children or grandchildren are major donors to our Temple. We strive to live up to the trust you have placed in us by providing your children with a stimulating, educating and nurturing environment where they can explore their identity as members of the Jewish people. They will be part of the great endeavor called discovery as they uncover the meaning of community and locate their place within it. Our greatest hope is that you will join them in their journey and will create an epic of your own. The Jewish world of 2011 is much different than the Jewish world of 1930, 1940, 1960, or even 2000.

So please come along with us on our sojourn through history as our travels take us from the ancient Land of Canaan to the Modern State of Israel with stops in Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Rome, Greece, Poland and Russia. Join us as we explore the Jewish People's, our people's, relationship with G-d and how we integrate divinity into our lives.

Please contact me if you have any concerns. Remember, no question is too small to ask.

Shalom,

Rabbi Mark H. Sobel
Educational Director

Curriculum Overview

The goal of Jewish education is to give the child the opportunity to develop a Jewish identity and to participate in and build an appreciation of Jewish Religious and cultural life.

Grade	Social Studies	Hebrew
Kindergarten & 1 st Grade	Introduction to Shabbat, Holidays and Torah/Bible Stories	Aleph Bet, simple Temple vocabulary
2 nd & 3 rd Grade	Life Cycle events, Holidays and Torah/Bible Stories	Alef Bet, simple prayer vocabulary
4 th & 5 th Grade	Life Cycle events, Holidays, Prophets, Jewish History and Torah study (weekly portion)	Simple prayers (e.g., candles, wine, bread, Chanukah), Shema, Torah prayers, long kiddush, weekly Torah portion
6 th & 7 th Grade	Timeline of Jewish History and Holidays, Ethics	Review all prayers (packet), Torah & Haftora
Bar/Bat Mitzvah		Specialized training and preparation for Bar/Bat Mitzvah
8 th , 9 th , 10 th Grade	Modern Jewish History, Jewish Ethics and Comparative Religion culminating in confirmation

Hebrew Names

We encourage our teachers to use Hebrew names in class whenever possible, especially in the upper grades. If your child does not have a Hebrew name, the Rabbi will be happy to assist you in the selection of one.

Music

Music is a regular part of religious school. Songs, both Hebrew and English, relate to holidays and the lessons being taught to students.

Individual Class Service & Oneg

During the year, each class has the honor of participating in Shabbat Services on Friday night. The dates when your child’s class will be honored will be discussed on the first day during the family brunch.

Kindergarten & 1 st Grade
2 nd & 3 rd Grade
4 th & 5 th Grade
6 th & 7 th Grade
8 th , 9 th , 10 th Grade

It is highly recommended that the parents of the class sponsor the Oneg when their class performs.

Tzedakkah

One of the common threads that binds together all we believe and all we teach at Temple Beth Emet, is the idea of Tzedakkah – righteous behavior. One way that we participate in this process is by collecting money for causes deemed worthy by our students. The Jewish National Fund, Lifeline for the Old, Jewish World Watch, North American Conference on Ethiopian Jewry, and Magen David Adom have been among the recipients of all the moneys raised by our students.

By actively participating in giving Tzedakkah, our students learn that we are part of a community and that our community reaches beyond our local boundaries to include Israel and world Jewry.

Tikkun Olam (Repair the World)

One of the goals of our Religious School is to do more Mitzvot in our daily lives. At the end of the year, we will hold a BTE Religious School Mitzvah day celebration where each class will share its social action/Tikkun Olam project.

Mitzvah Day

In accordance with the concept of community, we participate in the Jewish Federation Council Mitzvah Day. We will select a special project for the day (like stuffing backpacks with school supplies for needy children) and hold a car wash. You will be advised of the exact time and date.

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir consists of a group of students from K to 7th Grade who love to sing. Songs range from traditional Hebrew songs to modern English songs. Practices are held after Religious School from noon – 12:45 pm. The Junior Choir performs at Shabbat Services, the first Friday of the month.

Library

Books are available for both recreational reading and for research projects in the Temple library. Library books can be checked out from the Temple office.

Homework

Homework is part of the learning process. Since the real key to learning Hebrew is practice and repetition, we highly recommend that each student try to practice reading aloud for 15 minutes every day.

Guidelines for Parents

Your child's religious instruction is a partnership between the Temple and you! We promise to provide the best instruction and atmosphere we can. By enrolling your child in religious school, we know that you have made a commitment to your child's religious education as well. With that in mind—

1. Attendance is important! While we will work with you to accommodate sports programs, scouting and other obligations, your child cannot be expected to succeed with religious instruction if he or she is not in the class. Please encourage regular attendance. If you demonstrate that religious school instruction is important, your child will pick up on that and the religious school will be important to your child.
2. Since school is in session only one morning a week, and for only three hours, every minute counts. Therefore, please have your child at school on time. Your child must be in the sanctuary by 9:00 AM.
3. Your child will have the full benefit of instructional time, if you avoid picking up your child up early. For the safety of our children, children must be picked up in the sanctuary at 12:00 PM noon. Students will not be dismissed to the parking lot. Children cannot leave the Temple, without their parents or the person listed as the emergency contact on your children's student information card.
4. Please review with your child what he or she is learning at religious school. Ask about what is being covered in class. Review the lessons with your child either at home, or even informally in the car. As your child begins to learn to read Hebrew, have your child read to you.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Many of you may not feel comfortable reading Hebrew yourselves. You should be honest with your child about your abilities, but please do not let that deter you from having your child read to you. You may not be able to tell if your child is reading everything correctly, but by listening, you will be able to see if your child is reading comfortably. By encouraging your child to read to you, you can reinforce the importance you place on their religious instruction, and reading is easier with practice.

5. G-D is a verb! Judaism calls upon each of us to be part of the Jewish community, and Temple Beth Emet is your Jewish community. We therefore, recommend that you and your child attend Shabbat Services Friday evening during the year. It is recommended that each child in the school attends Friday night Services at least twice a month.

It is particularly important for Bar/Bat Mitzvah students to attend services regularly with their parent! We have found that many parents have become unfamiliar with the service in general, and with the Temple Beth Emet service in particular. This has led to instances where parents were not fully prepared themselves for participation in their child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah services. Regular attendance prior to Bar/Bat Mitzvah also gives the child a better feel for the pace and feel of the service. This will help them feel more at ease on their big day!

6. Our parking lot is small. Please follow the direction of the parking lot attendant on duty and be courteous and careful in the parking lot. Remember, our parking lot attendants are often parent volunteers.
7. Become involved! There is no better way to show your child the value you place on Judaism than to become involved. We have numerous ways for you to serve our Temple on Saturday mornings during school, or at other events. You can volunteer to be a parking lot attendant, become a room parent, and assist at the Sukkot breakfast, Chanukah Celebration, Purim Carnival, or Passover Seder. Temple Beth Emet was built on the vision and talents of parents like you. Please help us assure the continued success of the Temple and of your child. We promise that you will find great satisfaction and spiritual fulfillment in your efforts. PLEASE, let the Rabbi, your child's teacher, the Temple Office Staff or the PTA officers know of your ability to assist and of any special talents you have.

8. Feel free to talk to the Rabbi if you are having challenges with your child's public school (e.g., religious holiday activities in classrooms, prayer at school functions, absences during religious holidays.) You may also want to obtain "Religious Issues in Your Child's Public School: A Guide for Jewish Parents," a publication of the Anti-Defamation League.

Surrounding your child with friends in Religious School makes that religious school experience that much more enjoyable. Please recommend our school to people seeking a first-class Jewish education.

Healthy School Plan

To ensure that our school campus and our classrooms are safe, friendly and productive places for our students, we ask the following. In the Temple and in the classroom, everyone (students, parents, teachers, guests) should behave in a respectful manner at all times. There is a zero tolerance for profanity, verbal disrespect, name calling, weapons and violence of any sort. Moreover, rough-housing of any kind is strictly prohibited. These may be grounds for immediate dismissal. We welcome your ideas, your observations, even your criticism. Temple Beth Emet belongs to you and your children. We invite you to take the opportunity afforded by your child's attendance in our school to become more involved with the Temple.

As in every education setting, parents, teachers, and others will raise issues about various aspects of the religious school from time to time. Parents are encouraged to communicate with teachers and the Rabbi whenever they have concerns of any type. The school takes all of your concerns seriously, and a procedure is in place to investigate all concerns brought to its attention. Person(s) expressing the concern will be contacted as to its resolution. Privacy and confidentiality will always be maintained.

Student Discipline Policy

We are confident that all of our children will behave in a manner which will not entail the enforcement of this Discipline Policy. If the need arises, however, know that we do intend to implement this Discipline Policy to its fullest. Please read the Discipline Policy with your child(ren).

1. Students should behave in the classroom and in the synagogue in a respectful and responsible manner.
2. Students who disrupt or disturb other students will be disciplined by the teacher. Each teacher is encouraged to employ whichever strategy he/she finds most effective to achieve optimum classroom decorum.
3. If a student continues to be disruptive, he/she will be sent to meet with the Rabbi. If the behavior does not improve, a conference with parents may be required.
4. If inappropriate behavior continues after the conference, the Rabbi together with the parents will make arrangements for the student to continue his/her studies outside of regular classes.
5. In the event that a Student expelled from the Temple Beth Emet Religious School the student forfeits the privilege to participate in any Temple related activities or events. This includes the expectation of an invitation to former classmates B'nai Mitzvah.

General School Policies

Attendance

Students are expected to attend classes regularly throughout the year. We request that parents call or e-mail the office whenever a child is absent. Parents will be notified if absences are a problem.

Tardiness

With instructional time so limited and with so much to accomplish, every minute counts. Please make every effort to get your child to school at 9:00 AM. When a child enters a classroom late, the learning process is disrupted for all students.

Illness

Please don't send your child to school with a fever or contagious condition. We will notify you (using your emergency number) if your child becomes ill. Sick children can be picked up in the Temple office.

Appropriate Dress

Students should wear comfortable, appropriate clothing, respectful to the Sanctity of our Temple facility. Shoes must have a back strap. Sandals and flip-flops are not allowed. Baseball caps may not be worn in the place of kippot in the Temple.

In the Parking Lot

In order to help ensure everyone's safety, we are requesting that you help exercise caution in our parking lot. If you park in the lot for drop off in the morning, please accompany your child(ren) to the front entrance of the school. For pickup, please park your car, come inside to meet your child(ren), and walk back together to your car. Children darting in between cars that slow down for pick up is a potentially dangerous situation. Help keep all of our students safe!

Electronics, Toys, Bikes, etc.

Music players, electronic games and all toys (unless requested by a teacher as part of the classroom activities) should be left at home. Cell Phones and pagers are to be turned off at all times during instructional hours. Any item that is designed to cause injury to another is not allowed and the possession of such an item may be grounds for immediate dismissal. Skateboards, rollerblades, "wheelies" and bicycles are not allowed in the building without clearance from the Temple Office. These items will be appropriately stored for the student as needed.

Classroom Visits

Parents are welcome to visit their child's classroom. To schedule a visit, please call the Temple Office at least one day in advance. For the safety and security of our students, no one is allowed to enter a classroom without first checking in with the Temple Office. If your child would like to bring a guest to class, please notify or call the office in advance.

Registration

Our Religious school is in session from September through May. You can enroll in religious school at anytime. Students cannot start Religious School without completing the following registration forms for the current year:

- ♥ Student Information Card
- ♥ Disaster Preparedness Release Form
- ♥ Treatment of Minor and Disclaimer Form
- ♥ Discipline Policy Agreement
- ♥ PTA Welcome and Volunteer Sign-up
- ♥ Scholarship Request Form (as needed)

Financial Assistance

We do not want any child left out! Religious school tuition can be paid in full or in installments. Financial assistance is available each year on the basis of demonstrated financial need. Families are encouraged to make us aware of any changes in their financial status. All information is kept in the strictest confidence.

PTA

Our PTA works with the Rabbi and teachers in planning and hosting all the holiday celebrations for the religious school. We depend upon our parents and our Temple members to help enrich the religious school experience. "Your actions equal a thousand words." Please volunteer some time during the school year and show your child life-long Jewish living. Our holiday celebrations also depend on your donations.

Co-curricular Activities

Youth Groups

The Temple youth group (grades 8-12) meets regularly under the leadership of a Youth Group Advisor. They participate in sub-regional activities. A.Z.A. is for boys grades 8-12 and B.B.G. is for girls grades 8-12.

Jewish Summer Camps

Contact the Rabbi for more information on summer day and overnight camps.
