"THE TEMPLE WITH A HEART" www.TempleBethEmet.com Office@TempleBethEmet.com

"No Man is an island, no man stands alone. Each man's joy is joy to me. Each man's grief is my own." (American Folk Song)

Last month, just after the murders in Paris, I found myself in a discussion with a member of the clergy of one of our neighbor's religions. I am purposely being vague because of the rules of L'shon Ha Ra. Of all the debate between my colleague and myself, one comment still troubles me more than the others he made. He asked, "Why should a Moslem person living in Glendale care what happens to people, Moslem and otherwise, in Paris?" How could I not care? We begin our Bible with the creation of Adam and Eve, created in G-d's image. Not Abraham the first believer nor Moses the first and foremost prophet, not King David the singer of Love songs. That brings me to this month. The month of Abraham's Lincoln's birthday, Valentine's Day and George Washington's Birthday. All three days represent a type of love. No one doubt's Lincoln's love for all Americans. Washington's love for our country and the rights of the individual in it. And, of course, Fr. Valentino's love for the institution of marriage. All three fought for what they believed in and all three suffered great personal grief in the achievement of love.

As I do often when I need a source text to aid me in finding the right path, I look to the Torah. Leviticus 19 came to mind last month and it seems appropriate this month, the month of love. "Thou Shalt Love Thy neighbor as thyself" We live in a cyberspace world, our neighbor is no longer next door or down the block or even in the same city. With the internet our neighbors are as close as an instant even though they are physically thousands of miles away. There are those who might limit our love saying that this quote is ethno-centric in design because today people tend to live next to people of the same, ethnicity or life style choice. Not in my neighborhood!!! But all groups have their parochial thinkers.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - February 2015

We rely on the members of our Temple family to do so many things here at Temple Beth Emet. If it were not for the efforts of dedicated volunteers we would have no newsletter, no Temple Seders, no social events, no Onegs, nothing that makes us a community rather than just a prayer house and religious school (although we are a great prayer house and religious school).

Those who volunteer at our Temple typically “wear more than one hat.” Jerry Engelberg often observed that we had too many hats and not enough people to wear them. Over the past several years we have lost a lot of people who have either moved out of the area, passed away, or have had other issues that prevent them from continuing to contribute as they did before. There are, however, at least as many hats, if not more.

We have been fortunate that many of our members, including newer members, have stepped in to help. Our religious school parents have evolved the old PTA into the Religious School Parents Association (RSPA) and have done wonderful things not only for the school, but for the greater Temple community as well. We have looked to our school parents to help in many areas. We have probably asked more of them than is fair, and I hope they know how much we appreciate them. Our school parents are the future of our Temple, and we hope many of them will step into Temple lay leadership positions.

Unfortunately, there are some very important hats that don't have heads! One of the most basic functions that need assistance is shopping for Oneg Shabbats. As Dana Sapper writes in this issue [on Page 8], it is a task that takes a little more than an hour, but we only have a few volunteers, so we have to call on the same people every few weeks. Those who sponsor Onegs often do the purchasing for their night, and that helps a lot, but we need more shoppers as well as more sponsors.

Barbara Lux can use help in proofreading the Chai Times, and in producing the hard copies that are mailed to subscribers and also set out at Temple. We need people to help plan and staff events and activities. We need people to contribute their talents to help with outreach and expanding our social media and web presence, to help with building maintenance and repair. The Men's Club and Sisterhood need people to join their groups and bring their interests and energies.

One position that we really need to fill is that of Board Secretary. Although this position is necessary as a nonprofit corporation and is mandated under our by-laws, it isn't really a burdensome job. It involves attending Board meeting and taking minutes and occasionally certifying actions of the Board. The Secretary is a voting member of the Board of Directors and is normally elected each year by the membership. Since there is a vacancy in this position, the Board is authorized to fill it. This is a great opportunity to step into Temple leadership.

It may sound like we are asking people to make a huge commitment of their time and that we need so many people for so many tasks; but really, if a dozen or so people step forward to help, we would be in pretty good shape. I can assure you from my personal experience that volunteer work at Temple Beth Emet is interesting, sometimes challenging, but very satisfying and rewarding. There are not many synagogues where a new volunteer, or even a new member, can have an immediate impact and have immediate influence in Temple affairs as ours.

I like to think of Judaism as a verb. By becoming actively involved at TBE, you feel greater ownership of TBE, and you enhance your Jewish experience. I invite you to put on a hat or two and help pump up the lifeblood of our “Temple With a Heart.”

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

May I remind you all, when the Torah was compiled in the people who left Egypt were ethnic Hebrews, many non-Hebrew Egyptian slaves and freeborn Egyptians joined in the trek through the desert. As my Rebbe, Zalman reminded me, that generation's 'joiners' were not compelled to be circumcised. Don't worry, the next generation was. We grew as a people because we cared for our neighbors, always, where ever we lived or they had been born. . .

But even if there is not enough love for your soul in 'love your neighbor as you love yourself', let me remind you of Rabbi Hillel's quote, pertaining to Judaism's essence, spoken while standing on one foot," That which is hateful to you , do not do to your neighbor. All the rest is commentary. Now go and learn it". Violently harming or injuring a person is abhorrent to me. The untimely ending of a person's life due to an act of terror even more so.

How could I, how can we, not rise up against violence? How can events anywhere in the world not affect us? We cannot, we should not, and we must bring our love to our neighbors matter where they are or who they are or who we are. The words of Deuteronomy have never been truer: LOVE. . . with all your Heart, your Soul and your Uniqueness.

B'ahava, Your Neighbor

Rabbi Mark

Attention: To all those interested in a trip to Israel. . . Our trip has been scheduled for January 21, 2016. If you are interested in going, please call the Temple Office to make a reservation. We already have a small, confirmed group, but would like to have more.

EDUCATION MATTERS - RSPA PRESIDENT, DAVID GOLDSTEIN

The Religious School Parents Association would like to thank the congregation for their generous donations to this year's Black Tie Virtual Fundraising Gala, which at last count had raised over $1,350 for the Temple, with donations still coming in! Many thanks to Amy Lawrence and to Andrea McKinnon for their work on this and to Amy for her generous donation of the supplies and postage needed to make this happen.

After a relaxing Winter Break, Religious School got off to a busy start in January and there are many exciting events planned for the Spring. Please take a moment to notice the new addition of artwork to our courtyard thanks to parent and artist, Barbara Sultan and the children and parents of the 2/3 class. The children and parents have designed and painted a new Tree Of Life Mural as this year's Tu B'Shevat project. We are glad to have this welcome addition. Planning is currently underway for this year's Purim Carnival scheduled for March 8th, don't forget to save the date. Planning for this event is done each year by Martin and the confirmation class students. They have some new ideas for this year, as well as the return of some old favorites.

Our Adult Education series "Jerusalem Through The Ages" has been quite well attended and has provided the class with some historical perspective, as well as some valuable insights into current events. Please join us as the series continues on Tuesday, February 10th at 7:00 PM.

A WORD ABOUT ONEGS FROM DANA SAPPER

4080 Seconds

by Dana Sapper

The job of Oneg Shopper takes me a total of one hour and eight minutes, once a month. Here is how I do it:

I shop Friday morning for the stuff I need: a bit of fruit, some veggies, creamer, soda, if it's on sale, something salty, something sweet to bake. Usually I do my personal shopping at the same time, so I wouldn't count that as an outlay of any time. I go home and mix up the cake or cookies and pop them in the oven. That takes literally 10 minutes. While that's in the oven, I cut up the fruit and veggies. 15 minutes, tops. When the oven timer dings, I take out the cookies and platter them. 3 more minutes. Put it all into a bag and drive to Temple. 25 minutes, but that's just because I don't live in Burbank. I put the stuff in the kitchen, then go into the office and fill out a check request, so they pay me back for the market run. 15 minutes in and out the door.

That's a total of 68 minutes to do a mitzvah that benefits the Temple in a big way. 4080 seconds. I bet all of us can spare an hour once a month to help out our community. And, the more people who volunteer, the less often each person does it! So if you and three friends sign up, you only will be doing it once every two months!!

There are lots of temples that don't have an oneg. Many just have some coffee and some cookies. But our oneg offers a lovely spread every Shabbat. Why does that matter? It means that members linger just a bit longer and enjoy some fellowship after the service. It also feels haimish. That warm, friendly feeling is what sets us apart from the big congregations, and what makes us special. When I was looking at temples, I noticed the oneg right away. I felt the warmth of the congregation in that little bit of food.

Help us keep this tradition alive, and to create that haimish feeling. Please call Laura Soroka at (818) 582-3077 and volunteer to be an oneg shopper. Even calling her will only take about 120 seconds of your time.
