"The Temple With A Heart"

"And you shall not wrong one another; for I am the LORD your God." Lev. 25:17)

Once upon a time in a galaxy not so far away, members of a certain tribe told members of another tribe that the leader of the second tribe was not really qualified to lead. The leader's authority came from a false tribal council and therefore should no longer be followed into battle. This rumor of inadequate leadership was spread throughout both tribes until one day, to his honor, one of the second tribal elders confronted the leader. The leader explained to this elder in quiet and calm terms that he had proper leadership credentials conferred on him by a great leader from another settlement of the tribe in a far, far land. The elder was embarrassed as to his lack of knowledge and never mentioned the "lack of proper leadership authority" again. Unfortunately, the elder never apologized for his shameful accusations, either.

In several days we will begin the year 5776. We will come to services and say how happy we are to see each other and then, in private, and not so private moments, we will critique, criticize and demean one another. As ancient as the tallis, as venerated as the Torah, as loving as the Kiddush cup, GOSSIP has always been there, is always there, will always be there. It is such a part of Judaism that its prohibition is one of the Ten Commandments, "Thou shalt not bear false Witness against another" (number 9). Some of our members may say that that refers to perjury, but I disagree. Publicly questioning and/or repeating statements that question's a person's integrity, motives or lack of judgment goes to that

Shanah Tova!!! Wishing you a Good Year! Erev Rosh Hashanah begins Sunday, September 13th and ends with Yom Kippur, September 23rd. The gift boxes are being prepared for your High Holy Day's Gift List by our own Temple Beth Emet Sisterhood. The gift boxes will be ready to ship to your family and friends or give them personally. They will include: Honey Bear Honey Dispenser, Kosher Cookie Packs, Tea Bags, Kosher Candies, Kosher Honey Straws, Recipes for Honey Cookies, and a Honey Cake Recipe so good you (or your loved ones) will jump for joy!! And isn't that a great way to start our new year? (See Page 12.)

On Rosh Hashanah it is written, and on Yom Kippur it is sealed.

Written some one thousand years ago, the Unetanneh Tokef presents a vision that dominates the High Holidays -- the vision of the unknown year ahead.

Many of us see the New Year as full of opportunity and hope, some of us look forward with dread of what might befall us. For most of us, however, the year ahead is an open road waiting to be traveled. We just are not sure who is going to be doing the driving! We hope we will be in control of our destiny, and by our work, our caring for our families, our efforts for causes and organizations we care for, and our being mindful of our own bodies, we will have a healthy, happy, fulfilling year. But there are always the unforeseen bumps, detours, and traffic jams on the road we travel. We have to have the faith and confidence that we can navigate from this New Year to the next, and we won't always have our GPS or phone apps to guide us.

If someone had told me last Rosh Hashanah that my year would take a turn that would take me to the hospital and surgery, I do not think I would have believed them. The turn did come, however, and as with most rough patches of road, I held on firmly to the wheel, followed the signposts, and got back on smooth pavement again. It helped a lot that I had a full tank of love from my family and friends, including my Temple family. The road also took Diane and me to Chicago for our nephew's wedding and a chance to be with my brothers. It took me to the Hollywood Bowl, Independence Day with one of my oldest friends, a broken water heater (bump!) and a dozen Temple Board meetings (heavy traffic, with occasional road rage).

Life is a great road trip, and during the High Holidays we are making a pit stop. We are checking to see we are on the right road. We make sure our spiritual vehicle is fueled up. We change the oil of our conscious, getting rid of the contaminants we picked up during the past year. We clean the windshield of our perception, making sure we can see the road clearly.

Where are you going this coming year? Wherever 5776 takes you, I hope you get to see new and exciting things, and that you go places that bring you joy and contentment. May your trip be full of health and prosperity.

L'Shanah Tovah, and Happy Motoring!

-- Ira L. Goldstein, President

commandment's prohibitive nature. Even raising the question of these 'character flaws' triggers this sin.

My emphasis is on the word "false." It is false in Judaism to speak evilly of a person, especially in public. The rabbis viewed embarrassing a person in public as a form of mortal wounding. "He who publicly shames his neighbor is as though he shed blood (causes the blood to leave the body)" [Baba Metzia 58B] The Rabbis, more importantly, did not specify that the person had to be there physically to be shamed.

The problem with gossip and shame is that it harms the subject, the narrator and the listener. It is often so tantalizing that the listener then becomes the narrator and then there is another listener, and on and on and on.

As we enter this period of intense introspection and ask for forgiveness from G-d and each other, let us set aside specific periods of time not just at services but in other situations, as well, to PERSONALLY ask for forgiveness from each other for our repeating of false information, for our poor judgments of others' characters, for our lack of trust and for our gossiping. May we have the courage to personally ask of people whether the information we have been given was true or false. Then, when this is accomplished, we will have become "righteous" detectives, discovering the righteousness of our neighbors' behaviors and becoming righteous by our efforts to find out what is right in each other.

At that moment we will be eligible to be written in the Book of Life because we have created a living bond and not a deadly one between us.

B'Ahava and Shana Tova,

Rabbi Mark

Attention: To all those interested in a trip to Israel. . . Our trip has been scheduled for January 14, 2016 and return January 26, 2016. We will have a meeting here at Temple to discuss details on September 29, 2016 at 7:30 PM. If you are interested in going, please call the Temple Office to make a reservation. We already have a small, confirmed group, but would like to have more.

Now that school is back in session for most of the LA area, we are gearing up for the start of the 2015/16 Religious School year. Registration has already taken place (and any parents who have not already had a chance to register their students should contact the Temple office for registration information). This year we decided to give our Religious School families a chance to get to know some of the other members of our congregation, by combining Religious School registration with our Temple Open House events on August 23rd and 25th, and with our Temple field trip to the California Science Center to see the Dead Sea Scrolls Exhibit, "The Space Shuttle Endeavor" Exhibit, and a 3D screening of "Jerusalem" by National Geographic Productions in the Science Center's IMAX Theatre. About 40 of our Religious School and Temple families traveled by chartered bus from the Temple on August 30th, where they spent the day touring the exhibits and the 3D film. This got the Religious School year off to a fun, exciting and educational start. The first day of classroom instruction for our students will be on September 13th at 9:00 AM, which this year falls on the day before Rosh Hashanah.

Rabbi Mark addresses the crowd of TBE Members on the bus giving them instructions regarding our field trip.

Overview of some of our TBE passengers on the bus leaving for the Science Center. Others drove their cars.

Some of our "intrepid" field trippers lined up to get into the exhibit of the "Endeavor." A piece of our "race for space" history. So amazing!

Note: Photos were not allowed at the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit so, unfortunately, I have none to share with you. Ed.

AND NOW A WORD ABOUT OUR ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES. . .

Our 2016/16 Adult Education series will begin on Tuesday, November 10th. Rabbi Sobel has prepared a series of classes on Kabbalah for this year's series and the topic of our first class will be "Meditation-Lock Out The World When You Need To." All classes will be held at the Temple in Blum Hall at 7:00 PM. Refreshments will be served. There is a suggested donation of $5 per class (or just $20 for the entire series of 5 classes). Please join us for these lively and informative discussions.

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;
Class Level;
Address;
Name of the University, and;
If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you! Thank you,

A Message From Cathy Zitnick, Sisterhood President

SISTERHOOD MESSAGE FOR SEPTEMBER 2015

Dear Members:

Our August fundraiser was at Shakey's Pizza in North Hollywood. Although, only eleven people showed, we did make some money. I am thankful for those who came, and I appreciate those who have the Sisterhood and the Temple at heart. Please support our Sisterhood and our events.

The "Woman of Valor 2015" Dinner and Fundraiser, in honor Shirley Abramson, was a great success. The Harrell's provided a fabulous dinner, and their son, Cyrus, created a wonderful chili for those who are vegetarians and gluten-free. We are very blessed to have people, such as the Harrell family, willing to cook on such a large scale for us. I know there are many more Temple members who have dedicated their time and effort for the benefit of the Temple on a large scale, as well. Shirley received gifts from both the Board and the Sisterhood. She exclaimed, "I felt like a bride all over again." She really is a blessing to all of us. I am thrilled that we all were able to let her know how much all her hard work and support has meant to us.

Religious School Registration will be on Sunday, August 23rd from 10:00 AM to Noon, as well as our annual Open House. We will also have an Open House on the August 25th from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. That brings me to my next fundraiser: Honey Gift Boxes. Every year the Sisterhood makes Honey Gift Boxes, so that members of the Temple can purchase them and give them or send them to family members with wishes of a sweet New Year. Barbara Bolter and I will be at Temple on both dates, she will be greeting possible new members, to inform them about our Temple and all that we do, and I will showcase our Gift Boxes. I will let you know how well we did. I am looking forward to the trip to see the exhibit of The Dead Sea Scrolls on August 30th. I think it will be very interesting and lots of fun. These will be great times to congregate and support each other, as well as the Temple.

We will not be having a Sisterhood Meeting this September due to the scheduled "flurry" of Temple events for this month: the upcoming holidays and Men's Club Brunch on Sunday, September 20th at 9:30 A.M. Our next meeting will be October 4th at 10:00 AM. I would like everyone to attend. I am sure that there are many of you out there that I have not met. I will look forward to making your acquaintance.

In conclusion, I would like to remind you that your Sisterhood and the Men's Club will be helping to set up for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur at St. Jude's Church. This is a time of year when tzedakah is emphasized, either in deeds or dollars, so please remember to give this holiday season whenever possible, and to support both clubs, which in turn helps to support the Temple. I wish you all a joyous and prosperous New Year. L'Shana Tova!

Cathy Zitnick
Sisterhood President

2 MESSAGES FROM SHIRLEY ABRAMSON

To the Harrel family:

You throw the most wonderful parties!

I want to take a moment to thank you for making it such a wonderful experience. I know you spent many months planning the event and it showed! There was happy chaos everywhere. The food and the laughter flowed freely and everyone had a good time. What made this so special as well, were all the people who showed up. What fun it was to be with you!

A big thank you again Harrel family for putting this on for us. My problem now is "What to do with the cigar?" I may just have it bronzed and hang it up next to the plaque!

Shirley Abramson

To be awarded the ESHET' CHAYIL is really a tremendous honor.

My personal Eshet Chayil was my mother. From her I learned many valuable lessons even as a baby sitting on her knee.

Here at Temple Beth Emet there were many "Women of Valor" who have gone before me and I did my best to follow in their footsteps. Today I am more committed than ever to the "Temple With a Heart" that has brought me so much joy.

Shirley Abramson

Our wonderful Shirley Abramson, our Woman of Valor 2015, receiving a blessing under the chupah from Rabbi Sobel. She is attended by brother Morrie Bolter, Sister-In-Law Barbara Bolter and sons, Paul and Bill Abramson.

"Family, friends, and Temple Beth Emet congregation helped 90-year-old TBE member Orven Schanzer, as he held his 75-year-old Torah he got in 1940 upon the passing of his father, get blessed at a July Friday night Shabbat service.

This was a life-long dream of Schanzer's to have his beloved childhood Torah blessed and Rabbi Mark Sobel generously and most graciously helped him realize and fulfill that honor. We humbly thank Rabbi for his outpouring of helpfulness & caring to make this event happen.

Further, many heartwarming thanks to everyone at "the Temple with a heart" for a truly beautiful evening!

Special thanks to Cantor Kyle for taking such great photos! The night's moments and memories will surely be treasured by all the family & generations to come!"

LET'S TURN OUR POCKET CHANGE INTO REAL CHANGE!

Who is Just5Club? J5 is a nonprofit organization helping those who are silently struggling financially. In November of 2013, six young professionals came up with a simple idea; a concept that beautifully ties the act of giving with uniting individuals from all corners of the world. At J5, we believe in the power of unity, where each individual has the power to make a difference. When people are united with one common goal in mind, even the smallest amount can make a significant impact in the world we live in today.

Here's how it works, it's easy!

1. Log on to www.j5club.org
2. Sign up to become a Just5 member with your credit card
3. Each month, your credit card is charged JUST $5.
4. At the end of every month, all the money is gathered and donated to a family or individual in need of financial assistance. Whether it's an emergency of being evicted from one's home or payment for medical bills, such as cancer treatment, J5 is there to help!

Give those in need a chance to go from HOPELESS to HOPEFUL

it only takes $5 a month
