"The Temple With A Heart"

"Start children on the way they should go, and when they are old, they will not turn from it." Proverbs 22:6

As I write this column, I realize that there are only 36 more shopping days until Hanukkah! And while we are thinking of what to get our children, our nieces, our nephews and, if we are so lucky, our children's children, we need to be thinking of those who have no one to buy for them or whose family cannot afford to buy things for them. We live in a world where it seems that children are more often than not becoming the innocent victims of others' anger or revenge or bigotry or ignorance or... well, we all know the extent of blame foisted upon children today. I remember as the child of divorced parents how one side would take pot shots at the other side through my sister and me. As they were basically good, honest people, I don't think they realized the damage they were doing to our psyches with their very cruel words and actions.

As I was already a teenager and fairly large for my age, so no one physically took out their anger on me or my sister. However, I have known children who were not so lucky. Broken bones are in partnership with broken spirits. Damaged limbs mate with deranged digits. Yellow scars with black and blue faces. What are we to do? First, if you suspect child abuse, report it to the police. They will take a report and pass it on to DCFS, Department of Child and Family Services. However, if you want to do more for all children, help us to donate more to Children's Hospital. Its' patients range in age from newborns to 18 year olds. We have a bin in the hallway outside of the kitchen. Let us continue to fill it, not only with new and packaged, unwrapped toys, that "can be played with in beds (their terms not mine), but shampoo, soaps, cosmetics and sundries for teenagers, a teenager who begins to care about their appearance, definitely cares about healing and new products for newborns, pacifiers, blankets, clothing, etc.

Pizza Night will be on Friday, November 6th at 6:00 PM. It will be followed by the Family Shabbat Service at 7:00 PM. Please bring your family and join us!

Men's Club Brunch is here again! Sunday, November 15th at 9:30 AM in Blum Hall. (See flier on Page 8.) All are welcome!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - November 2015

Should Jews celebrate Thanksgiving? For a congregation such as ours, the question seems ridiculous -- of course we should! Jews have been part of the American experience since the beginning of the country, and conversely, America has been part of the Jewish experience as well. America was the Golden Door to Jewish immigrants fleeing persecution. They came here, where the streets were paved with gold, to make a new life. While they did not actually find streets of gold, they did find freedom and opportunity. Of course we are thankful and of course we join in celebration with our neighbors, many of whom have their own unique story of their families coming to America.

Additionally, we know that the American Thanksgiving holiday is largely patterned on the observance of Sukkot. According to some scholars, the Pilgrims lived for years among Sephardic Jews in Holland before coming to the new world and they brought the concept of deliverance and the commemoration of harvest to their celebration of gratitude.

Yet certain Jewish authorities have argued against Jews participating in Thanksgiving. One argument is that Torah forbids the Jewish nation to emulate the ways of other nations, citing Leviticus 18:3: "Neither shall ye walk in their statutes; do not follow their social customs." There is commentary on Talmud that explains that the prohibition applies in two instances; the first are idolatrous customs and the second is foolish customs found in the Gentile community, even if their origins are not idolatrous. Later discussion relaxed the prohibition against "foolish customs." (Thank God there isn't a prohibition against being foolish or a lot of us would be in trouble!) A more modern commentary explains that Thanksgiving is secular holiday, but while there is no prohibition against eating turkey on Thanksgiving, it should be done by choice and not seen as an obligation, lest it be seen as "adding a commandment." Another commentary cautions that while it is permissible to share a Thanksgiving meal with other Jews or secular people, it should not be celebrated with those who include religious ritual.

All of this analysis and hair splitting is enough to make most of us run for a pumpkin spice latte, or maybe a cranberry juice and vodka! How fortunate it is that we live in a country where religious scholars are blessed with the freedom to openly discuss, debate, even argue over the observance of an occasion that celebrates blessing and freedom!

Whether your Thanksgiving features turkey or not; whether you are with a large group or just a couple of people, or even alone; whether you include religious ritual, or just a parade or football game, or simply peace and quiet; I wish you all a very happy Thanksgiving. May we all take stock of what we have to be thankful for, and may we look forward to the blessing yet to come.

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

To make it easier for all of us, here are some suggestions of what to give needy children:

AUTOMOBILES (Match-Box, for example)
BLANKETS
COLORING BOOKS
DOLLS
EYE LINER, COSMETICS (PREFERABLY HYPOALLERGENIC)
FANTASTIC 4 FIGURINES (or DC)
GOLF PUTTING GREEN
HIGH LIGHTERS
INK PENS
JACKS
LINCOLN LOGS
MILITARY MEN (and) WOMEN
NIGHTCRAWLERS (plastic, of course)
OLD MAID (the card game, not the nurse!)
POLICE CARS
QUIET HEADPHONES (Helps others, while child listens)
ROUGE (BLUSH, COSMETICS)
STETHOSCOPE (play doctor kit)
TELESCOPE (see what's going on outside)
UNO CARD GAME
VIDEO GAMES
WATER PAINTS
XYLOPHONES
YOYO (with string, not with cello)
ZEBRA (model)

These are my suggestions, you may have others. Come share them together at Temple. As we prepare for the holiday season, we must do two things, rededicate ourselves to the Love of Giving that is Judaism and let us help give all the children smiles that shine SO brightly they dispel the darkness of suffering.

May I be the first,

HAPPY HANUKKAH!!!!!!

B'Ahava,

Rabbi Mark

Attention: To all those interested in a trip to Israel. . . Our trip has been scheduled for January 14, 2016 and return January 26, 2016. We will have a meeting here at Temple to discuss details on _____, 2016 at 7:30 PM. If you are interested in going, please call the Temple Office to make a reservation. We already have a small, confirmed group, but would like to have more.

It was a busy month of October for our Religious School kids and their families - we began the month with our annual school Sukkot Breakfast on October 4th. The Rabbi and school staff were assisted in the preparation of this event by the parents of the 4/5 class who provided what was in my opinion the nicest spread of food I've seen at one of our school Sukkot Breakfasts (and I've attended quite a few). Special thanks to 2/3 Room Parent, Cherie Rye, who coordinated the event and to all of the other parents who helped out. On October 11th, the children celebrated the holiday of Simcha Torah by marching around our Temple while holding the Torah followed by a moving ceremony in the sanctuary during which the children and their parents were literally wrapped in the Torah.

Planning is currently underway for our annual Religious School Hanukkah Fundraiser, coming up in just a few weeks on December 6th. The Rabbi and Robyn are once again preparing for an original musical for the occasion, and without wanting to give too much away yet, the rumor I hear is that it will have a bit of a Motown theme to it this year (who doesn't love the music of the Motown era). We are planning to repeat last years popular Canter's In The Valley event, with a rare East Valley visit from the Canter's Food Truck to our Temple (and who doesn't love Canter's food!?) Please mark the date and be on the lookout for more details as the day of the event approaches.

RSPA President

AND NOW A WORD ABOUT OUR ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES. . .

We are looking forward to the start of this years Adult Education series, "Kaballah-The Key To Better Living," which begins this month on Tuesday, November 10th at 7:00 PM. The topic of our first class will be "Meditation-Lock Out The World When You Need To."

Other topics for this year's series will include Geamatria, The Zodaic, Reincarnation, and Angels. Classes will meet once a month on Tuesday evenings through the month of March, there is a suggested donation of $5 per class or just $20 for the entire series of 5 classes The Rabbi has prepared a series with a bit of a spiritual flavor to it this year, we hope to see you there and bring an open mind for these lively discussions!

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information: The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

A Message From Cathy Zitnick, Sisterhood President

SISTERHOOD MESSAGE FOR NOVEMBER 2015

Dear Members:

The first meeting of the Sisterhood in the New Year was a success. We had more attending Sisterhood than I ever would have imagined. A few new ladies attended and they sure made it feel like a team effort. I also would like to thank those that helped me with the policy and procedures of running the meeting. The less people attending means the less formal you are able to conduct your meeting, to which is what I have become accustomed. I will be better prepared for the upcoming meeting.

Every year we have a Hanukah Bazaar, the particulars of the next one will be announced at a later date. We would like you all to come and purchase those things for Hanukkah. In the past, the Sisterhood had a Hanukkah Brunch, and we are trying to coordinate a good day for that. Due to the schedules of the Religious School and Men's' Club, I believe our brunch will be sometime in January, and it is possible that we will have another fundraiser, to raise funds for the holidays, to be announced soon.

Now that our New Year has started, we all have the opportunity to create new traditions, habits, and changes in our lives. We also have the opportunity to return to our old way of doing things. For instance, EScrip lost Vons as a contributor, but gained Fresh & Easy. I used to shop a lot at Fresh & Easy before I found out about and signed up with EScrip. I linked up my Friends Rewards Card to EScrip and returned to shopping with Fresh & Easy again (with the donations going to Temple Beth Emet), only to find out recently, that Fresh & Easy is closing all their California stores. Fortunately, we can all return to the reliable, tried and true, Ralphs Supermarkets for our participation through Ralphs' Donation Program. Life is such an adventure, and it is always amazes me about the things I am starting anew and to what things and habits I am returning.

Our next meeting will be November 1st at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. I would like you to attend if you can. I am sure that there are many of you I haven't met. I will look forward to making your acquaintance.

In conclusion, I would like to remind everyone that Family Promise will be coming back to St. Jude's at the end of November, or beginning of December, I believe. Family Promise is an organization that provides temporary housing and meals to the homeless, by housing them at a place of worship for a week and then moving them to another house of worship until they can find work and a place to live. The Temple has obliged the Sisterhood to provide the dinners for the one week of their time spent at St. Jude's Church. One of the Sisterhood members has been kind enough to offer to coordinate, so that the next time St. Jude's is due to sponsor Family Services, we are ready in the knowledge of which Sisterhood member(s) is/are going to provide dinner on what night. This is a time when tzedakah is emphasized, either in deeds or dollars, so please remember to help those in need and St. Jude's whenever possible.

L'Shana Tova!

Cathy Zitnick, Sisterhood President

This Is Your Personal Invitation to Join Temple Beth Emet's Sisterhood

Sisterhood is a group of friends who work together for our Temple, our children, and our community, in a very tangible way. Our President, Cathy Zitnick, will be happy to hear from you. PACK FOR US!

Make a donation of a pack of paper towels for our kitchen or bathrooms, or bathroom tissue, a case of grape juice, a bottle of dishwashing liquid, a case of copy paper, or some of the other things we use at Temple!

You'll be helping the Temple and saving someone from making an extra trip.

LET'S TURN OUR POCKET CHANGE INTO REAL CHANGE!

Who is Just5Club? J5 is a nonprofit organization helping those who are silently struggling financially. In November of 2013, six young professionals came up with a simple idea; a concept that beautifully ties the act of giving with uniting individuals from all corners of the world. At J5, we believe in the power of unity, where each individual has the power to make a difference. When people are united with one common goal in mind, even the smallest amount can make a significant impact in the world we live in today.

Here's how it works, it's easy!

1. Log on to www.j5club.org
2. Sign up to become a Just5 member with your credit card
3. Each month, your credit card is charged JUST $5.
4. At the end of every month, all the money is gathered and donated to a family or individual in need of financial assistance. Whether it's an emergency of being evicted from one's home or payment for medical bills, such as cancer treatment, J5 is there to help!

TRIBUTE CERTIFICATE

Here is an idea you can implement to honor, congratulate, wish a happy birthday, anniversary, a get well wish, Yahrzeit, wedding, birth announcement, graduation, Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Whatever occasion you can think of, this is a delightful option.

Have a Tribute Certificate printed in the Chai Times!

A half-page costs only $25.00

A full page costs only $50.00

Extra donations in honor of the occasion are welcome.

Honor that someone special.

While honoring someone special, you will also be supporting Temple Beth Emet.

Tributes need to be requested by the 15th of the month for the next issue.
