"The Temple With A Heart"

"When you walk through a Storm, Keep your head up high and don't be afraid of the dark." (Carousel)

The other day, I got a call from an acquaintance and, as we got to talking, he reminded me how long he had been married and of the good times he and his wife had, but now things weren't going well.

So I told him, buy a notebook, find a quiet place in the house and write down all his happy memories with his wife. Don't show it to anyone, just keep it for yourself. And when things get difficult, take out the notebook, read about some of the good times and then, either close the book and continue your day or add more good times. Either way, the negative feelings would be replaced by the good ones. I like the kinetic form of pain removal and replacement best, but we now live in an advanced technological world. There are those who use voice recorders the way I use the stylus on my phone. I'm only part dinosaur. But, think of the ease of saying, "Siri, take me back to my life book," and voila, your last recorded anecdote is refreshing your memory.

As much as I would like to take credit for this method, I learned from Rabbi Kramer to suggest this to people. He used it with couples who were

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - June 2016

June means nice weather, later sunsets, and more time to take care of all those little chores around your home. No more excuses, you've been staring at that burnt out light bulb in the ceiling fan for months -- time to get up there and change it. And while you are at it, the light covers could use cleaning too.

Your spiritual home needs some attention as well. We are a participatory congregation, which means each family needs to take ownership of our campus. Jose comes in to the preliminary set-up for Oneg Shabbats and finishes cleaning up afterward, but he is not a full time custodian. With Jerry Engelberg's passing almost two years ago, we lost our chief Mr. Fixit. Since we are perpetually fighting the budget, it would be nice if we didn't have to hire someone to fix or update everything that needs it. It is our Temple and we really should take care of it and take pride in it.

A lot of times we can walk past something that needs attention, and if we do it enough times, we don't even see it anymore. Other times we think "someone really ought to do something about that" without realizing that we, the Temple Beth Emet family, are the "someone."

Recently, Dana and Howard Sapper decided they could not stand the sight of the red post in the parking lot that is there to keep people from parking right in front of the door to Blum Hall. A long time ago someone had put a traffic cone on top of it to make it more visible, but it certainly didn't make it more attractive. This door has become our primary point of entry to the Temple. When the building was built, double doors were put in front opening to the foyer, but it turns out everyone comes in the side door. The Sappers wanted to do something to make the entrance more friendly and welcoming and to do something about that post. They set about placing a planter around it with drought-resistant plants. Talk about turning an eyesore into a sight for sore eyes!

The Sisterhood decided to replace the carpeting in Blum Hall, which has become rather ratty, and hope to do the sanctuary as well. What a difference that will make!

One of our members has promised that before the High Holidays the bathrooms will get a thorough cleaning, and I'd like to get some people together to paint them and maybe put in some better light fixtures.

A board member thinks we can do something with the Ark to make it look less imposing.

Here is where I am going to get in trouble, because there are a lot more people who pitch in here that I am not acknowledging!

I am not above getting my hands dirty either. Repairing light fixtures, replacing toilet seats, there is always something to do around our Temple and often I get the call first. Even Rabbi Mark was up on a ladder last month repairing the drop-ceiling in one of the classrooms.

What do you want to spruce up at Temple? Of course we can't have people come down and do whatever they want; we could end up with pink flamingos on the front lawn! (No offense to pink flamingo lovers, of course.) But if there is something you want to tackle, let us know. Some things need the approval of the Board of Directors due to the scope of the project, other times it can be informally approved.

Nothing gives someone a feeling of true ownership of a place like doing something to improve it, be it a needed repair, a good cleaning, or a heartwarming decoration. As a community, we can all contribute to keep our Temple With a Heart something to be proud of.

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President struggling. When he would have them come to him for counseling, he would tell them to bring their wedding album. This return of thoughts to better times in the marriage led the couple to rethink what their future would be and most often they would stay together and not separate.

I want to expand this “notebook” of good memories to include people living positive everyday activities not just those going through life changing experiences. Why should crises bring out the life draining feelings from our days and nights? Let us remember that crises don’t last and that we can live through them. The best way to do that is to remember when we weren’t in danger. The Chinese have a curse, “May you live in interesting times” meaning during times of crises. I have a prayer, “May you remember the interesting times and how you lived through them.” We all have had crises in our lives, how we struggled with them and overcome them is what made us stronger. We must be strong, not only for ourselves, but for those we love.

B’ahava,

Rabbi Mark

TRIBUTE CERTIFICATE

Here is an idea you can implement to honor, congratulate, wish a happy birthday, anniversary, a get well wish, Yahrzeit, wedding, birth announcement, graduation, Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Whatever occasion you can think of, this is a delightful option.

Have a Tribute Certificate printed in the Chai Times!

A half-page costs only $25.00

A full page costs only $50.00

Extra donations in honor of the occasion are welcome.

Honor that someone special.

While honoring someone special, you will also be supporting Temple Beth Emet.

Tributes need to be requested by the 15th of the month for the next issue.

Our Religious School students have completed the 2015/16 school year and we wish all of them and their families a fun, safe and relaxing summer. Our teachers and staff were honored at our well attended annual Teacher Appreciation Shabbat Service on May 6. The Junior Choir under the direction of Robyn Kreisberg performed 2 special songs in honor of our faculty and the teachers and staff each received gifts of original artwork by Religious School parent Barbara Sultan; the Oneg following the Service was provided by our Religious School Parents Association. On May 8, the students observed Holocaust Remembrance day and were visited by guest speaker Lawrence Bush, editor of Jewish Currents magazine who spoke to the children and their parents about the many relatively unknown members of the Jewish resistance movement during WW2. Our students were very interested in his subject matter and had many questions for Mr. Bush following his informative talk. On May 15, the students celebrated both Israeli Independence Day and the final day of Religious School. . . Also on May 13, the Temple held what we hope will be the first of many "Open Discussion Forums," which is an idea that was suggested by longtime Temple member David Zollman, topics up for discussion included the future of both our Temple and Judaism in America and elsewhere.

A reminder that we are still taking suggestions for topics for our 2016/17 Adult Education Series. Ideas for past Adult Ed series have traditionally been suggested to the Rabbi by Temple members, so if you have an idea for next year you can contact him, the Temple Office, or myself and we will be glad to consider it.

A Message From Cathy Zitnick, The Sisterhood President

SISTERHOOD MESSAGE FOR JUNE 2016

Dear Members:

Again, we had a decent turnout at our last meeting, and our next meeting will be June 5th at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. I would like all you ladies to attend our next meeting. I am sure that there are many of you that I have yet to meet. I look forward to making your acquaintance.

On Tuesday, May 10th, we celebrated our Days of Remembrance. It was held at St. Jude's this year, and was sponsored by the 2016 U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council, together with the Burbank Human Relations Council. Our own Sylvia Sutton is the Liaison to the Holocaust Memorial Council. Unfortunately, she could not be there that night. The music for the evening was provided by our Cantor, Kyle Orlemann and our Music Director, Robyn Kreisberg, both of which are talented and beautiful. The Speaker did a phenomenal job of presenting famous people both non-Jewish and Jewish who helped the Jewish cause during the war. He was able to project corresponding pictures of the people onto the wall so that we could see the images of the people he was discussing. Then six people spoke about their experiences during the Holocaust or on behalf of someone who survived the Holocaust. They were: Janet Diel, Hilda Fogelson, David Meyerhof, our own Herbert Murez, Dave Lux, and Judy Mason-Benedict. Then a representative from each of the religious organizations in the area got up and read a paragraph they had written for just this occasion. Rabbi Mark Sobel not only did a wonderful job hosting the evening, but gave the benediction, as well. Please put it on your calendars to attend next year. You will be glad you attended.

The following day was Israel's Independence Day. Temple Emanu El hosted a dinner and evening of music. I understand the dinner was catered and quite good. Children's music was played and everyone seemed to enjoy the children dancing. Possibly next year Temple Beth Emet can sponsor the Independence Day festivities.

The Gift Shop had a Mother's Day sale from April 10th to May 7th, so that everyone could do their shopping before Mother's Day on May 8th. The Gift shop offered 20% off of everything. Shirley Abramson assisted everyone on their purchases, since she is the person in charge of the Gift Shop. I believe we did quite well and we will be able to make some room for new things to sell.

For the past few months now I have been saying that we don't have a fundraiser, for you all to listen to the One-Call-Now, as you might be pleasantly surprised. However, this month, I was able to organize a fundraiser for the Sisterhood on Thursday, June 16th with Pizza Rev. I hope you all like pizza as much as my family and I do. We are big fans of their pizzas. Pizza Rev is located at Palm Avenue and San Fernando Road, just a few doors from the AMC 16 Theaters. The hours on Thursday will be from 11:00 AM until 10:00 PM, and 20% of your bill will be donated to the TBE Sisterhood. So please make sure you either have the flyer (there is one in this newsletter) in hand, or mention Temple Beth Emet Sisterhood when you get to the register. The more money we raise the more nice things we can do for the Temple and our members. I look forward to seeing you there!

I spoke to Jeanne Mintz, our coordinator for Family Promise Week, for dinners that we provide at St. Jude's. She informed me that the week of June 19th—25th will again be at St. Jude's Anglican Church and it's our turn to provide meals for the families. Sisterhood's night for that week will be Sunday, June 19th, so if you can help out, the Sisterhood, St. Jude's and Family Promise would appreciate it.

Until we meet again,
Cathy Zitnick
Sisterhood President

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR FRIEND, EDITH DAGUE

I was hospitalized several weeks ago and have since been released. I want to take a moment to thank all those who came to visit me and called me. A very big THANK YOU to Rabbi Mark Sobel for coming to visit me and pray for me before my surgery. It meant a lot to me to have you visit and listen to me because, frankly, I was concerned with the outcome. Thank you, Rabbi!

Cathy Zitnick came to see me after my surgery and brought me a wonderful magazine and the most beautiful orchid I had ever seen! She came by a few more times and helped me get up and walk around the hospital. Thank you so much Cathy, your warmth and friendship mean so much to me.

Thank you to Robyn Kreisberg for coming to see me and for saving me some Passover dinner! It helped me heal faster.

And to Barbara Lux and Logan Smith, you are two wonderful people. They called me many times and Logan brought flowers and a card up to me. And while Barbara wasn't able to come up and see me herself, I could feel her love. Thanks you two!

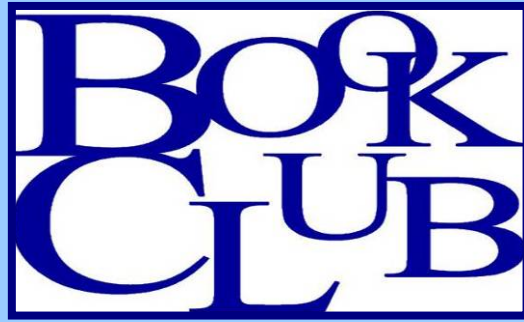

Thank you Barbara Bolter for calling and checking up on me and to all those who sent cards and well wishes, thank you!

I can tell you that this temple is truly the Temple with a Heart!

Shalom,

Edith Dague

We have a wonderful new Jewish book club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, June 28, 2016 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: The Chosen by Chaim Potok

Synopsis: It is the now-classic story of two fathers and two sons and the pressures on all of them to pursue the religion they share in the way that is best suited to each. And as the boys grow into young men, they discover in the other a lost spiritual brother, and a link to an unexplored world that neither had ever considered before. In effect, they exchange places, and find the peace that neither will ever retreat from again...

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries.

Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.

LET'S TURN OUR POCKET CHANGE INTO REAL CHANGE!

Who is Just5Club? J5 is a nonprofit organization helping those who are silently struggling financially. In November of 2013, six young professionals came up with a simple idea; a concept that beautifully ties the act of giving with uniting individuals from all corners of the world. At J5, we believe in the power of unity, where each individual has the power to make a difference. When people are united with one common goal in mind, even the smallest amount can make a significant impact in the world we live in today.

Here's how it works, it's easy!

1. Log on to www.j5club.org
2. Sign up to become a Just5 member with your credit card
3. Each month, your credit card is charged JUST $5.
4. At the end of every month, all the money is gathered and donated to a family or individual in need of financial assistance. Whether it's an emergency of being evicted from one's home or payment for medical bills, such as cancer treatment, J5 is there to help!

*100% of our members' donations go to the recipients; all other fees are sponsored from either the board or other donors!

*Each month, we send out a J5 Newsletter, letting our members and other subscribers know exactly whom they have helped.
