"The Temple With A Heart"

"We have come to take you home." (Israeli Hostage Rescuer at Entebbe, Uganda, July 4, 1976)

This year is the 40th anniversary of the Rescue of Jewish Hostages by elements of the IDF from Entebbe, Uganda. It is seen as a watershed event in the war on International Terror and pretty much ended airplane hijackings until 9/11.

But we, Israel and the Jewish world, see it a bit differently. That momentous action sent the word to the whole world that Israel would stop at nothing to rescue Jews.

At our temple, we thank G-d, we do not have to rescue hostages from 10,000 miles away. But on several levels, we send the same message. We are here to teach and reach your children. Our School, of which I have been a part of for 30 years, continues to mold lives, preparation for Bar/Bat Mitzvah and Confirmation may be the most dramatic events, but almost every Sunday, our teachers, through their caring and commitment to Judaism, make our children know that this is a safe place for them to be. Don't misunderstand we have high standards for academics and of behavior. That's my job to set those standards. Just as the Israeli commandos were well trained and disciplined and were therefore successful, sometimes we have to be "covert" (sneaky) to rescue the kids from what

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - August 2016

Summer is usually a quiet time at Temple Beth Emet. Religious school is out, families go on vacation, Shabbat services attendance wanes, and there are no holiday celebrations. This summer has been different.

In June, our Sisterhood arranged a special gift to the Temple -- new carpeting for Blum Hall and the sanctuary! They worked with Howard Sapper and his family carpet company (plug!) to replace our tired blue carpeting with a beautiful light brown floor covering that really brightens up our two most used and most visible rooms. We thank our Sisterhood for this gift and for everything they do to support the Temple Beth Emet community. We all need to support their efforts so they can continue their work.

We are thrilled to welcome Elaine Rosenfield to our Temple family as our new Director of our Preschool, which we plan to open next month. Elaine brings to us her experience as a teacher and director at two thriving local Jewish preschools, as well as an abundance of energy and enthusiasm. All we need now are children ages 2 to 5. We know that there is demand in the Burbank community, but we are offering Temple Beth Emet families priority. Please contact the Temple office and Elaine will get back to you to set up a tour and provide additional information.

Hollywood Bowl tickets came in late this year, so we were not able to include concert information in the July issue of the Chai Times. You should have received word by way of One Call. There are three more concerts, including one on Friday, August 12 celebrating the 2016 Olympics in Rio featuring Sergio Mendes and 50 years of Brazil '66. Yes, FRIDAY evening! We will be holding a brief Shabbat services at the Bowl at 7:00 PM, and the concert starts at 8:00 PM. We did something similar several years ago at Dodger Stadium and it was a great success. Tickets are available in the Temple office.

We have two open houses planned. One is Wednesday night, August 17 from 7:00 PM to 9:00PM and the other is Sunday morning, September 11 from 9:00AM to 1:00PM, coinciding with the opening day of Religious School. Who do you know that might enjoy being part of the Temple Beth Emet family? Why not bring them down to see our Temple and meet us?

Last year, our Men's Club decided to take a break. They now want to restart the organization with a fresh outlook, and they are looking for men and women (yes, the Men's Club welcomes women just as the Sisterhood welcomes men) interested in crafting a program of social, family, intellectual, and service activities. Leave your name and contact information with the Office and the Men's Club will set up a get-together.

I would like to welcome the new members of our Board of Directors: Our new Treasurer Cathy Zitnick, who is also Sisterhood President, our new Secretary, Eileen Martin, who was elected as a director, and agreed to step into the vacant Secretary position, Dan Gura, and Martin Sultan. Welcome back to those returning to the Board: David Goldstein, who steps up to Vice President, Shirley Abramson, Barbara Bolter, Herb Murez, and Ken Watnick.

In Judaism, the number 18 represents chai, life. Thirty-six is "twice chai," and as we know, when something is repeated in Judaism, it is to be given additional importance. This month, my family observes a "twice chai," two lives joined together that result in something stronger than the two individual lives, as my wife Diane and I celebrate our 36th wedding anniversary. I know I am indeed blessed to have such a loving and wonderful life partner, and if I ever doubt it, there are plenty of people here at Temple who will remind me! Happy anniversary, sweetheart!

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

has hijacked them from being the wonderful manifestation of creations that they truly are. We understand their commitment and their parents' commitment to our Temple and our commitment can be no less strenuous.

When I think of commitment above and beyond what is expected of young adults, I think of our Youth Group. We host an AZA chapter named Kneseth. It is open to young men from 8^h grade through High School. They meet here every Wednesday. And, while truthfully, their commitment is first to B'nei Brith, they have made involvement in Temple life a close second. Several times, they have helped us when they could, with as varied activities such as the Passover Seder, the Purim Carnival, and when asked at the last moment moved most of the pews out of the Sanctuary so we could make our Temple shine. Truly, though, the true brilliance comes from them and all our young people's actions, listening, learning and playing in Judaism, not at Judaism.

I always worry when our young people graduate and go to college. College is a bewildering place. If you are not strong in your beliefs, its temptations can be very destructive. So, it is with great pleasure I tell you about a TBE rescue program. It is co-chaired by Sisterhood President Cathy Zitnick and Sisterhood member Hannah Clein. They contact our college "kids" and send them TBE Care Packages, on holidays and for birthdays. All you need to do is call the Temple Office and give them the College address of a child you know who could use the "rescue" of a present or food or just a card that says we, like the Israelis, will go anywhere to "bring them home to us," if only with some candles, a dreidel or some food."

At the other end of the childhood spectrum, our Early Childhood Center, is registering children. Making TBE the home for even younger "potential Ph.D. Scholars" fills me with great joy. But we need your help. Please, if you know of a potential family that is looking for a Temple with a heart and with a commitment to life-long learning, love, care and commitment to young people, bring them to us. Bring all who need a home to us. Forty years ago, the Israelis found a way, don't worry, so will we.

B'ahava and hope,

Rabbi Mark

I hope that all of our Temple and Religious School families have been enjoying a restful and fun-filled summer. It's hard to believe that, in just a few short weeks, Fall will be here. We have already been busily preparing for the new Religious School year, which is shaping up to be one of our most exciting ever.

I would like extend a warm welcome to our Temple family to Elaine Rosenfield, who has been hired as the Director of our new Temple Beth Emet Preschool. Elaine brings many years of experience to our congregation, having previously served as Director of University Synagogue Early Childhood Learning Center, Chatsworth Hills Academy, Shomrei Torah, as well as having worked at many other area preschools. As many of you know, our Temple Preschool, which has been in the planning stages for quite some time, is now set to open soon. We are currently accepting applications for enrollment from Temple members and their friends and family before we open up enrollment to the rest of the community in a few weeks, so if any of you have or know of families with children ages 2-5, please contact the Temple office as soon as possible for further information.

The first day of Religious School for the 2016/17 school year will be Sunday, September 11th, beginning at 9:00 AM. Enrollment information will be emailed to all of our returning families, please watch for the registration forms and other information which will be arriving soon. Please note that parents are being asked to plan on spending at least part of the morning with us the first day, as we are requiring that registration be done in person on the first day of instruction that year, I will be sending out further information about this soon. Also, if you have a child who will be starting Religious School for the first time or know of an interested area family please contact me so that I can make sure that enrollment information gets to everyone who needs it

Enjoy the rest of your summer and I look forward to seeing all of you again when classes resume this Fall.

September is on the way!!!

Dear Temple Members,

I am very excited to begin a new chapter in, not only my life but, the life of Temple Beth Emet. As your new Preschool Director, I'm thrilled to be able to share the warmth with new families that I have felt from everyone I've met at the synagogue so far. Although the school will be small, we will grow and we will be recognized as Burbank's new "place to be." In a nurturing environment, rich in Jewish awareness, Temple Beth Emet's littlest learners will gain independence, build on their foundation of self-esteem, grow socially and emotionally and become the unique people they are meant to be. All this while having LOTS of fun!

We have all heard and read that it "takes a village" to raise our children. It is an enormous job that parents cannot do alone. For those of us with grown children, we've experienced the importance of extended family and community. For those with young children, you will come to see that importance. I feel confident that the teachers, our Rabbi, this community, and I will be that village.

My career in early childhood education began more than twenty years ago. I was a teacher at Temple Ahavat Shalom and, after seven years in the classroom, I moved on to directing. I spent six years as Preschool Director at Chatsworth School Academy, a secular school, that began with two-year-olds and went up through Middle School. I must say, it was a little difficult breaking the habit of saying HaMotzi before snack! I continued my career at University Synagogue in Brentwood. Over these years, I've had the amazing opportunity to touch the lives of so many children and their families and I can honestly say I love this journey!

The transformation of classrooms into a preschool setting is beginning. If you are a family with young children, I would love to talk to you or, if you know of families with young children, please send them my way. I can be reached at (818) 389-1977, until I have an office phone.

I look forward to meeting my new community and, as a parent of four grown children and six grandchildren, reminding you often...

Treasure these years...they go by very quickly!

Shalom,

Elaine Rosenfield
Preschool Director

TEMPLE BETH EMET PRESCHOOL ENROLLMENT NOW OPEN! ANTICIPATED OPENING SEPTEMBER 2016

We are delighted to announce the opening this Fall of Temple Beth Emet's Preschool. We know you will join us in welcoming Elaine Rosenfield, the Preschool Director to our community.

Elaine brings many years of experience with her to our congregation as both a teacher and director of two thriving Jewish Preschools.

As many of you know, our preschool has been in the planning stages for some time and it is with much excitement that we announce its opening.

We are currently enrolling Temple members and their friends and family before opening enrollment to the rest of the community at the end of the month.

If you have, or know of families with, children ages 2-5, please contact the temple office and leave your name and phone number. Elaine will return your call and answer all your questions. Space is somewhat limited so please call soon.

Dear Members:

Our July 4th meeting was dark due to the Independence Day holiday and so many people were out of town that weekend. So, our next meeting will be August 7th at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. I sent out an e-mail blast to find out if you would like to meet at the Temple, or if you would like to meet at the Coral Café again. I had one response, not to meet at the Coral Café again, so the Temple will be open for just us. I would like all of you to attend our next meeting. I am sure that there are many of you out there that I haven't met yet. I look forward to making your acquaintance.

On July 8th, there was an Installation of Officers of the Temple Board and of the Sisterhood at our Shabbat Service at the Temple. (Unfortunately, the Men's Club is still revitalizing and therefore could not participate.) Of the Sisterhood Board, I was installed as the President of the Sisterhood, Shirley Abramson as the Vice-President, Iris Abrams as the Treasurer, and Hannah Cline as the Recording Secretary. The Board is will begin its new term and, even though I can't say that we are richer in dollars, I can say that we are richer in membership, with the help of Barbara Bolter, we have tripled our membership from two years ago. My ultimate goal, though, is to get every lady who is a member of the Temple, to also be a member of the Sisterhood. For even though our fundraising efforts eventually go to the good of the Temple, our by-laws state that one does not need to be a member of the Temple to join the Sisterhood.

Even though I have yet to schedule anything for the month of August, either a fundraiser or a community service event, I want to remind you all that it is so important to support the activities of the Sisterhood. We are an integral part of the Temple, and the more funds we raise the more we are able to do more nice things at the Temple, like donate carpet, for our members.

The Sisterhood's next fundraiser is to be our Estate Sale, which is scheduled for September 18th. We will be occupying the entire parking lot for the event, with each member having an area to display her items for sale. The ladies voted to provide a catering truck that day to provide lunches for the community and us. Sunday school will be in session then, so we would like the parents to stop, browse, and buy while the kids are in school.

The month of September we will be selling our annual Honey Boxes for Rosh Hashanah. The Sisterhood has voted to keep the prices the same as last year; a box for $13, and a box mailed to whomever you designate, for $20. We will again be mailing boxes to service men and women, so if you have a family member or friend in the military, please get your order in to us by August 15th, as it takes a little longer for them to receive it.

The June 19th was the beginning of Family Promise Week. Our usual Sunday night donation was changed due to Father's Day; however, we coordinated Thursday evening, June 23rd, to provide dinner for the families. There was plenty of food that week and St. Jude's was thrilled with our donations. I would like to thank Iris Abrams for donating bread and desserts twice that week to Family Promise. I believe our next rotation for Family Promise will be in October, but Jeanne Mintz will keep me apprised of when they visit St. Jude's next.

Be well and be in Sisterhood!

Until we meet again,

Cathy Zitnick, Sisterhood President

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

Thank you,

If you will be willing and available, please contact the Temple Office at (818) 843-4787 and give your name and telephone number.

This is a great way to start the new year!!!

We have a wonderful new Jewish book club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, August 23, 2016 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Night by Elie Wiesel—We will read this book in Memorial Honor of his passing.

Elie Wiesel is a young Jewish boy who is forced into small ghettos by the Nazis during World War II. He and his family are later put on a train to an unknown destination along with other Jews from their town. Elie could not have imagined what he saw when the train stopped. The train stopped at Auschwitz, a concentration camp. When the passengers exit the train the men and women are separated and then the men are sorted into groups based on their health and skills. Elie is separated from his mother and sister immediately and never sees them again. He and his father are given a hint on how to stick together by a stranger who has been at the camp for a long time. Throughout the novel, Elie and his father must stick together in order to survive. The duo manages to stay together even after switching camps. Elie witnesses many atrocities during his time in the concentration camps.

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading

LET'S TURN OUR POCKET CHANGE INTO REAL CHANGE!

Who is Just5Club? J5 is a nonprofit organization helping those who are silently struggling financially. In November of 2013, six young professionals came up with a simple idea; a concept that beautifully ties the act of giving with uniting individuals from all corners of the world. At J5, we believe in the power of unity, where each individual has the power to make a difference. When people are united with one common goal in mind, even the smallest amount can make a significant impact in the world we live in today.

Here's how it works, it's easy!

1. Log on to www.j5club.org
2. Sign up to become a Just5 member with your credit card
3. Each month, your credit card is charged JUST $5.
4. At the end of every month, all the money is gathered and donated to a family or individual in need of financial assistance. Whether it's an emergency of being evicted from one's home or payment for medical bills, such as cancer treatment, J5 is there to help!

*100% of our members' donations go to the recipients; all other fees are sponsored from either the board or other donors!
*Each month, we send out a J5 Newsletter, letting our members and other subscribers know exactly whom they have helped.
