"The Temple With A Heart"

"But why was the second Sanctuary destroyed, seeing that in its time they were occupying themselves with Torah, [observance of] precepts, and the practice of charity? Because therein prevailed hatred without cause." B.T. Yoma 9b

When Ira came to me with the idea of having Friday night Services at the Hollywood Bowl, I was a bit skeptical. After all, even though we were not fasting, it was Tisha B'Av, the saddest day in the Jewish calendar, when both the first and the second Temples fell, as well as the day the Final Decree of the Spanish Inquisition was put into effect, where even those Jews who had converted to Catholicism were imprisoned, tried for apostasy, maintaining their Judaism in secret and executed.

Expecting to hear some deep classical work as the theme for the night and hoping it would at least enable me to link the service with our deep communal sadness as our theme for the Kabbalat Shabbat service, I asked him, "What is the orchestra going to be playing?" He said, "A salute to the Rio Olympics via the Music of Sergio-Mendes and Brazil 66".

Then, it hit me. Tisha B'Av, the Spanish Inquisition, the new world and Brazil and its role in American-Jewish History. Add to the mix, our belief in bringing Judaism to the public through our outreach efforts and I was ready to go.

Let me connect the dots before I tell you what happened at the bowl.

In Simon Wiesenthal's book, Sails of Hope and other sources, Christopher Columbus, is theorized to be Jewish. What IS not theory is that he set sail for the New World on, of all days, Tisha B'Av in 1492. Also, this diary records that he did not give his sailor's shore leave erev Tisha B'Av as the Inquisition's arresting soldiers were prowling the docks after midnight and he was afraid some would be taken to prison and/or executed.

Okay, that links our night at the Hollywood Bowl with Columbus' "discovery" of the New World 514 years ago.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - September 2016

Recently one of our members shared a video on the Temple Beth Emet of Burbank Facebook page from Temple Shalom of Cincinnati. The video depicts a temple board meeting. One board member asks "who is going to set up for the Oneg Shabbat this Friday?" Those around the table simultaneously start saying they cannot. The board member then says "OK, I've got it, let's get someone else to do it." Everyone signifies their enthusiastic approval. Problem solved. We then meet Someone Else, that indispensable member of every congregation who does whatever needs to be done to keep the temple going. "Someone Else" explains that it is critical that congregants know that Someone Else is always there to get stuff done, if they need it.

Someone Else explains that she works behind the scenes, out of the way and out of sight, so no one feels burdened to thank her. One congregant says Someone Else is always there to volunteer on a new committee or donate to a new fund. "She is a real role model!"

It is a very clever video, and if you want to see it, just go to our web page www.templebethemet.com and click the link on the home page. It is also a very serious video. Every synagogue depends on Someone Else to do things, and Temple Beth Emet is no different. Someone Else shops for Onegs, plans activities, comes up with new ideas to attract new families, fixes things that break, proofreads the Chai Times, starts a book club, sets up for High Holidays, and so many other things. Someone Else built Temple Beth Emet and Someone Else keeps it going.

But really, who is Someone Else? Many of the people who have played the part of Someone Else over the years at our Temple are no longer here or no longer active. Those who still answer the call are often doing as much as they can. The truth is, we need Someone Else to help the rest of us who work to make our Temple the warm, welcoming, and unique family that we are. We need a lot of Someone Elses; people to help do the mundane things that need to be done as well as those with a vision of what they want Temple Beth Emet to become.

Please watch the video. Then ask yourself, are you Someone Else? Or are you one of the other characters appearing or described, such as the one who praises Someone Else but does nothing else, or I did it Lasttime? Ours has always been a participatory congregation and everyone has some skill to contribute or some idea to share. You can be Someone Else just by being yourself! And we will remember to thank you.

We need you to be Someone Else.

-- Ira L. Goldstein, President

But where does Brazil fit into this? Brazil was conquered by the Portuguese in 1500, but then the Dutch captured the north from the Portuguese in 1630. The Netherlands was one of the few havens for our people in 1492. So after Brazil became a Dutch colony, Jews settled there and began the city of Recife. Unfortunately, Portugal returned and recaptured northern Brazil. Jewish citizens of Recife fled north toward New Amsterdam, where they landed in 1654.

They landed and demanded their rights as Dutch citizens from the Governor of New Amsterdam, Peter Stuyvesant. After a three year struggle, they were granted. Mail traveled slowly then.

To continue the Jewish connection, between Brazil—'66 and us, in 1966, Sergio Mendes had a lead singer named Lannie Hall, she is Jewish and is married to a Jewish Trumpet player, Herb Alpert. So, I hoped when we held our services maybe they would join us. No such luck.

But several other people did. Some just happened to be sitting near us, by accident of ticket. A few came by because they heard us singing. All in all, it was a tremendous night, but there was one situation I want to discuss with you because it goes all the way back to the destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans.

The Rabbis teach that the only reason we lost the second Temple was through "Sinat Chinam," baseless disrespect. The teaching is that one Jew did not give respect to the ideas of another Jew. Outside of my small part in making up prayer sheets for the service, other people brought Electric Shabbat Candles, Grape juice, Challah and Kipot. More so, people hurried to get to the Bowl so we could pray, which is an important part of Shabbat and Temple Beth Emet. To voice one's anger and disdain so loudly as to be heard by our members and strangers sitting near us is an example of Sinat Chinom, and we cannot allow that to enter our Temple's life. From the time I entered the Hollywood Bowl at 5:55 PM, NO ONE who I told about our service, either on the staff of the Hollywood Bowl or people hearing us talking about our service or seeing me in my Tallit, was anything but supportive. I saw smiles from people near us, so proud that we took our belief in Judaism into the public arena. What better way to take victory away from those who would have ended Judaism 2,000 years ago, 500 years ago, 50 years ago and even today, than to pray "the Sh'ma" in public at the Hollywood Bowl.

Rabbi Yochanan Ben Zakkai in 70 C.E, when he escaped the siege of Jerusalem to establish a Yeshiva at Yavne, established the concept of the portability of Judaism. We are merely continuing the move from ancient Israel to Spain to Brazil to Burbank and to the Hollywood Bowl.

Now, in the month of Elul, when we are to begin to more intently review our past sins and not to sin further, let us give respect to all people and their desire to carry Judaism with them wherever and however they do so.

B'ahava where ever you are,

Rabbi Mark

Elul

I hope everyone has had an enjoyable summer vacation and that the new school year is off to a great start for all of our Religious School students and their families. The first day of our 2016/17 Religious School will be on Sunday, September 11, with school starting at 9:00 AM. By now you should all have received the registration forms by email, if for some reason you have not, they are available on the Temple website this year at <http://www.templebethemet.com/education/religious-school-forms/>

We are asking that parents register their students in person on the first day of school this year, so please plan on allowing sufficient time to do so that morning. We will make every effort to make the registration process as quick and efficient as possible. You will also have the opportunity to hear brief presentations from the leaders of some of our other Temple organizations and learn a bit about the many other opportunities available at Temple Beth Emet. I'm looking forward to an exciting and learning filled academic year for all of our students.

Our Adult Education series will be beginning in the month of November. Rabbi Sobel has asked me to remind everyone that he is still taking suggestions for topics for this year's series; if you have suggestions please him know, or you can forward them to me and I will be glad to relay them to him.

TBE "CHAI LIGHTS"

Barbara Bolter, on behalf of the entire Congregation, wants to thank the "Beautification Committee" for the tremendous job they did cleaning and organizing the Temple kitchen and storage room. It's a great example of what great things can be done if we work together as a team!

A WORD FROM ELAINE ROSENFELD, PRESCHOOL DIRECTOR

The month of July seemed to fly by! With an Entrance Sign on the door, we are just about ready to begin the new school year. Our classroom has been transformed with the help of Legos and a Lego wall, dress-up, a wooden kitchen and dollhouse, trains and so much more. The courtyard, which already had two playhouses, has been enhanced with a “music wall,” water and sand tables and a mini “roller coaster.”

We’ve had very good feedback from every family that has visited us. If you have not seen your new preschool, please feel free to stop in...I look forward to showing you around!

High Holidays Are Coming Up!

Rosh Hashanah begins October 3rd

Through Yom Kippur October 12th

We are in need of some strong, enthusiastic men and women to assist our Temple in moving, temporarily installing and disassembling our backdrop for the High Holidays this year.

Its an excellent time to show your support for our Temple and your efforts will be greatly appreciated. Now is the time for you to do a wonderful mitzvah with your friends and family members who volunteer to help.

If you will be willing and available, please contact the Temple Office at (818) 843-4787 and give your name and telephone number.

This is a great way to start the new year!!!

Dear Members:

Our September meeting will be dark due to the Labor Day holiday on September 5th and so many people will be out of town that weekend. So, our next meeting will be October 2nd at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. I would like all the ladies to attend our next meeting. I am sure that there are many of you out there that I haven't met yet. I look forward to making your acquaintance.

My ultimate goal, though, is to get every lady who is a member of the Temple, to also be a member of the Sisterhood; which is why I will be at the Temple the morning of the September 11th for our Open House. Even though we are a social group and enjoy getting together, our fundraising efforts are specifically designed to go to benefit the Temple. I want to remind you that it is so important to support the activities of the Sisterhood. We are an important part of the Temple and the more money we raise, the more we are able to do nice things to benefit the Temple, (like donate carpet for instance) for our Congregation. If you should know a lady who does not belong to a Temple, or maybe just wants to be a part of a group, please send her to our Open House as our by-laws state that one does not need to be a member of the Temple to join the Sisterhood. We will welcome her with open arms.

The Sisterhood's next fundraiser is to be our Estate Sale, scheduled for Sunday, September 18th, from 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM. We will be taking up the entire parking lot, with each member having an area to put her items out for sale. The Gift Shoppe will also be open inside the Temple with one of our ladies assisting shoppers, in case you decide to purchase something new rather than used. Our next holiday is Rosh Hashanah and there are many beautiful new things in the Shoppe, as well as quite a few new cards. The ladies voted to provide a catering truck that day for the Temple and the community. Sisterhood will be getting a percentage of the food sales, so please consider ordering your lunch from the truck. Sunday school will be in session then and we would like the parents to stop, browse and buy while the kids are in school.

During the month of September we will be selling our annual Honey Boxes for Rosh Hashanah. A form will be included in this issue of the Chai Times, where you can indicate how many boxes you would like to purchase and to whom, if any, you would like mailed for you. The Sisterhood has voted to keep the prices the same as last year; a box for $13, and a box mailed to whomever you designate, for $20. We will again be mailing boxes to the military, so if you have a family member or friend in the military, please get your order in to us by September 15th, as it takes a little longer for them to receive it and Rosh Hashanah isn't until October 3rd this year.

Family Promise sent the Temple a beautiful letter thanking all of us for helping their organization with food donations the week that their families are at St. Jude's Church. They have undergone many changes this past month, with a new Board, and the building of a Resource Center in Glendale. Their Resource Center will provide the families with computer access as well as mentoring on the best way to write their resumes. Not having to pay to house their families or for the food to sustain them has enabled them to be able to add this very important Center to better enhance the services they can offer the families. Family Promise is very grateful to us and St. Jude's for making this happen. I want to thank those Sisterhood members especially, for enabling us to keep a Sisterhood Night when we can contribute to the families' welfare.

Be well and be in Sisterhood!

Until we meet again,

Cathy Zitnick

Thank you for your support of Temple Beth Emet Sisterhood!

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

Thank you,

We have a wonderful new Jewish book club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, September 27, 2016 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Joheved, [which is Book One of Rashi's Daughters] by Maggie Anton.

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

Synopsis: In 1068, the scholar Salomon ben Isaac returns home to Troyes, France, to take over the family winemaking business and embark on a path that will indelibly influence the Jewish world, writing the first Talmud commentary, and secretly teaching Talmud to his daughters.

Joheved, the eldest of his three girls, finds her mind and spirit awakened by religious study, but, knowing the risk, she must keep her passion for learning and prayer hidden. When she becomes betrothed to Meir ben Samuel, she is forced to choose between marital happiness and being true to her love of the Talmud.*

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.

*Synopsis taken from website of Amazon.com, where book can also be purchased.

LET'S TURN OUR POCKET CHANGE INTO REAL CHANGE!

Who is Just5Club? J5 is a nonprofit organization helping those who are silently struggling financially. In November of 2013, six young professionals came up with a simple idea; a concept that beautifully ties the act of giving with uniting individuals from all corners of the world. At J5, we believe in the power of unity, where each individual has the power to make a difference. When people are united with one common goal in mind, even the smallest amount can make a significant impact in the world we live in today.

Here's how it works, it's easy!

1. Log on to www.j5club.org
2. Sign up to become a Just5 member with your credit card
3. Each month, your credit card is charged JUST $5.
4. At the end of every month, all the money is gathered and donated to a family or individual in need of financial assistance. Whether it's an emergency of being evicted from one's home or payment for medical bills, such as cancer treatment, J5 is there to help!

*100% of our members' donations go to the recipients; all other fees are sponsored from either the board or other donors!
*Each month, we send out a J5 Newsletter, letting our members and other subscribers know exactly whom they have helped.
