"The Temple With A Heart"

"Our Help will come from someplace else." Book of Esther

At our February Board meeting, our number one concern as a congregation was brought up again, Membership. New programs were brought up such as 3rd Friday night Services is now an all musical Shabbat Service and, of course, the Pre-School has generated and will generate new members to our Temple family. Other ideas were bantered about, but we need more ways to bring people in. Once people get to us they seem to stay. Why? Because we are nice people, true, because we are humble people, for the most part, but, I believe, because we are open to all. We are a team. If I may use the analogy, we are the "Temple With A Heart." The heart has 4 valves, all of those valves, when working together, pumps out life. If they don't work together the person could die. This is where we are now. At the meeting, a town hall was proposed. It is set for Sunday, March 19 at 3:00 PM. The proposer, though, sought to limit participation. WE CANNOT. Anyone who wants to attend, must attend. Who knows? That person's one idea may be the one that brings us new members. More importantly, though, it brings to the community that we truly believe we ALL have a say in the growth of the Congregation. The downside to the team approach IS THAT PEOPLE HEAR OPINIONS THAT DIFFER FROM THEIR OWN. We need to open

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - March 2017

Purim starts Saturday evening, March 11, 2017 and the Sisterhood will be holding a Purim dinner for the congregation, followed by our Temple's unique multilingual Megillah reading. There will be a costume contest, as well as noisemakers, songs, and Purim treats. It will be great fun, and the more people who attend the more the noise and merriment.

Purim is a time when congregations come together to celebrate and have a good time. Sometimes we need to get together on a more serious note for the good of the Temple community.

We will be holding a Temple Beth Emet Town Hall on Sunday March 19, 2017 at 3:00 PM and we invite everyone to attend and participate. We need to spend a little time together to find out what we are all thinking. What are we as a congregation doing right? What can we do better? What do you think we should be doing in order to grow our congregation? We haven't been growing for some time. So we need to get together to share ideas and make decisions about our future.

There is every reason to be optimistic about the future of our Temple. Our preschool is off to a great start and some of the families are now involved as a part of our greater Temple family. There are also several large residential apartment developments going up and planned in Burbank, so there will again be an influx of families moving into our neighborhood in the next several years. We need to be ready to meet new families and help them feel welcome at our Temple With a Heart. Our board, administration, and members all need to be mindful of new families in our neighborhood and at our Temple.

Please plan to join us for our Town Hall. We will bring refreshments; you bring your positive, supportive, and constructive attitudes. We will all bring our listening ears and open minds. We will all bring our creativity and enthusiasm as well. I know we will come up with some terrific ideas to help grow and improve our Temple.

Temple Beth Emet was founded in 1958. Burbank was a growing community and families were moving in. Ten families decided that they needed a reform-minded house of worship and our Temple was started. Our congregation has always been member driven and we have depended upon the participation of everyone to be the best that we can be and to grow. Next year will be our 60th Anniversary. Let's start working now to toward something that we can all really celebrate!

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

our minds, and not just our ears, to what people propose. One thing about our congregation is the fact we don't put barriers before people. And we accept you as you are. In that, we have a congregation that most resembles Judaism's symbol, the tree of life. We have people who swing from vastly different branches and produce many varied fruits on their vines. The congregation is the tree trunk nourishing people to grow in their own way. How much more beautiful is our tree of life than others,' because we allow others to produce their own Divine Fruit!

Therefore, we who value uniqueness and community have a stake in maintaining and then improving the "Temple With A Heart."

In addition to joining us on the 19th, here are a few other events you may want to attend and certainly bring others . I know once they join us they won't want to leave us.

March 3 Tot Shabbat	5:30 PM
Pizza	6:00 PM
YP Services	7:00 PM
March 11 Sisterhood Purim Dinner Costume Contest	6:00 PM
Multi-Lingual Megillah Reading	7:00 PM
March 12 School Megillah Reading and Carnival	9:00 AM
March 17 Musical Shabbat Services	7:30PM
March 19 TBE Town Hall Meeting	3:00 PM
March 24 Ask the Rabbi Shabbat Services	7:30 PM

As we remember Mordechai's comment to Queen Esther, this month of Purim, take to heart this sobering idea. Help won't come from someplace else, it MUST come from each and every one of us.

B'ahava and Happy Purim,

Rabbi Mark

Our Religious School students and our Parents Association have been busily preparing for the upcoming Spring Holidays. The congregation and the entire Burbank community is cordially invited to join us on Sunday, March 12th at 11:00 AM - 2:00 PM for our Annual Purim Carnival. This event is planned and put on by our older Religious School students, with the assistance of the Staff, the Rabbi and the Parents Association. The Rabbi will begin the festivities by reading the Megillah to our students at 9:00 AM and then please plan on joining us for morning of fun which will include games, prizes, food, and a children's costume parade!! I hope to see all of you there!

The final class of this year's Adult Education series on "What Does Judaism Say About..." will be held on Tuesday March 19th at 7:00 PM. Our series has been thought provoking and well attended this year. It has included many lively discussions among our class members, who hold a diverse range of points of view. For this final class of the series, Rabbi's topic will be "Are We Meant To Be Perfect?" As always, these classes are open to everyone and there is a suggested donation of just $5 per class.

Please mark your calendars for the morning of Sunday, April 2nd from 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM, when we will be holding our first annual "Big Ask." This much needed fundraiser is being organized by our Parents Association. On that morning, you will be receiving a call from either a Temple Officer or member of the Parents Association and asked to donate to Temple Beth Emet. Please see the flyer in this issue (on Page 8) of the Chai Times for more information.

A Place for Learning

We are contemplating offering an Adult Education class in the daytime, taught by Rabbi Mark Sobel! If this is something that might interest you, please let us know if you are interested in attending a daytime class at Temple by contacting the Temple Office.

There will be more information about this possible addition to our offered educational opportunities in this March issue of the Chai Times.

Dear Members:

Our next meeting will be March 5th at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. I would like to invite all interested to attend our next meeting. I look forward to meeting those of you who I haven't met yet. I have to apologize for going on "hiatus" last month in this newsletter. As most of you know, I am also Treasurer for the Temple, and January is particularly busy tax season for the position of Treasurer. So much so, that I was not able to schedule any time for myself to write my monthly article.

Purim is on Saturday, March 11th, and The Sisterhood is holding their Annual Dinner and Costume Contest and then Rabbi Mark will host the Megillah reading, as always. In addition, on Saturday, March 11th, our famous potluck dinner will be served at 6:00 PM, with the Costume Contest to follow. The Sisterhood is asking a $10 dollar/each donation for the dinner, as you know, the donations will be put to good use.

The conclusion of January's article was a promise to keep everyone posted as to what The Sisterhood will be planning from January through June, before the next term of new Officers. The Temple has found itself getting quite tight financially, so The Sisterhood voted to help out by delegating two hundred dollars ($200.00) a month to advertising for a three-month stretch, in order to be able to bring in monetary income to the Temple by renting out Blum Hall for meetings and events. At February's Board Meeting, two of The Sisterhood's lovely ladies, Eileen Martin and Fran Bourne-Johnson, volunteered their time to be the "booking agents" for Blum Hall, and to field any calls that come to the Temple regarding reserving the social hall for meetings and/or events.

Many temples across the nation are having a difficult time getting new members as the younger generations are not "joiners." So therefore, many temples are having to rent out their school rooms and halls to make ends meet financially. Unfortunately, Temple Beth Emet is no different. One of the most logical ideas that I read in a Jewish Journal about four years ago, was that the best way to support your local Jewish community was to join a Temple. I had no way of knowing that shortly after I would meet someone that would invite me to join her as a guest to a couple of events at her Temple, where I would be so welcomed and the cost to join so reasonable, that I would be able to join a Temple, support my local Jewish community, and better educate myself in the beliefs and prayers that are Jewish. I can understand what the Temple is experiencing, because even though I was able to recruit a few new members to The Sisterhood last summer, these younger members are not working the once-a-month meetings of The Sisterhood into their schedules. I know that they are receiving the minutes that I e-mail out every month, but I would very much like to get to know them better and I would like them to have a say as to what The Sisterhood is doing, not just reading about what other members of The Sisterhood have decided while they were not in attendance.

All of us in The Sisterhood wish everyone a wonderful and joyous Purim.

Yours in the Sisterhood,

Cathy Zitnick

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

What is the book we will read and discuss: The Red Tent by Anita Diamant

Synopsis: Her name is Dinah. In the Bible, her life is only hinted at in a brief and violent detour within the more familiar chapters of the Book of Genesis that tell of her father, Jacob, and his twelve sons.

Told in Dinah's voice, Anita Diamant imagines the traditions and turmoils of ancient womanhood--the world of the red tent. It begins with the story of the mothers--Leah, Rachel, Zilpah, and Bilhah--the four wives of Jacob. They love Dinah and give her gifts that sustain her through childhood, a calling to midwifery, and a new home in a foreign land. Dinah's story reaches out from a remarkable period of early history and creates an intimate connection with the past.

Deeply affecting, The Red Tent combines rich storytelling with a valuable achievement in modern fiction: a new view of biblical women's lives.

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries.

Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.

The Temple Library has a beautiful set of Judaic Encyclopedias available. If you wish to consider having them for your home or a gift, please contact the Temple Librarian, Barbara Lux. There is no set price for the volumes, but a nice monetary donation to the Temple's General Fund would be lovingly appreciated.

You may leave a message for me at the Temple Office at 818 843-4787, and I will return your call, or send a message to my email address: Formerlygidget@gmail.com.

I will be happy to show them to you.
