"The Temple With A Heart"

"Who Shall Dwell in Your Holy Mountain? He who ... does what is right and speaks the truth in his heart." Psalm 15

In a few days it will be the anniversary of the Six Day War. To me, as to many others, the highlight, if a war can ever have a highlight, was the capture and reunification of the city of Jerusalem on June 8th of 1967. A song written and sung for the first time a few weeks before the Six Day War spoke of Jerusalem as a place of Gold, of Copper and of Light. Jerusalem each time I have visited her always leaves a golden memory with me.

The first memory I have of her is standing and speaking to a Jordanian guard, whose job, while being paid by Israel, is to guard the Dome of the Rock and the Al-Aksa Mosques. My second memory is of the Kotel, the last remnant of the Second Temple being visited by many, many people. They were coming to openly pray at this place for the first time in 29 years. After Israel's War for Independence, with Jerusalem being divided between her and Jordan, the Kotel was forbidden to Jews. Rabbi Kramer used to tell how in the 1950's, he sneaked up to the Kotel dressed as a Russian Orthodox priest to pray. He always said the Jordanian guards must have thought he was speaking Greek while, in fact, he was praying in Hebrew, not a golden memory but one just the same.

My turn came on a July day in 1970, when I went to Israel to study. I prayed and on my way back to

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - June 2017

Recently, I noticed my cell phone battery would become drained rather rapidly. The battery is not that old and I do not do a lot of gaming, video watching, or music listening on the phone. When I checked the battery usage I found that there was one application that was using some 40% of the battery, and this was not even an app I used regularly. I found an alternative app, removed the offending app, and now my phone's battery life, while still not stellar, is more acceptable. If I were to start removing more apps that run in the background, it would lessen the load on the battery. I just need to take a good look at what is taking up space and zapping energy.

How many of us live our lives with something unnecessary draining our energy? We go through our daily lives and we do not even realize that there are unnecessary or marginally necessary things taking up our time and energy. We just need to take a good look at our lives to see what we can let go of, or change the "settings" in order to be less burdensome.

It is also helpful to top off our energy when it starts to get low. Keeping Temple Beth Emet in your life is a great way to do that. Have you been to Shabbat services lately? Every Shabbat of the month is something different. Pizza Night and Family Service on the first Shabbat, a traditional service the second, a music-oriented service the third, and Ask-The-Rabbi the fourth. Each of these services will "re-Jew-vinate" you in a different way. We also have activities such as a book club and a new drawing class. What do these all have in common? The various unique services, the book club, and the drawing class were all ideas from you, the members of our Temple family.

Why am I suggesting you add things to your life when I started off telling you to let go of things? Because involvement in Temple life, whether spiritual, intellectual, or creative, is something that will help recharge your batteries. And if there isn't something going on that sparks your interest, maybe you have an idea for something new.

Speaking of something new, our new preschool held a dance-a-thon last month and it was a huge success. Members of the Pre-School, Religious School, and Board Members were all dancing together, having a great time. Not only was it a fun way for our community to get together, it was a very successful fundraiser as well. My congratulations and thanks to our Preschool Director Elaine Rosenfield and all parents who organized and presented this event. Our preschool has added so much energy, joy, and love to our Temple in such a short time!

June 30 marks the end of the current term of Officers and Directors and I thank those who have shared with me the honor of serving the congregation. While we continue to face challenges, we have accomplished much in the past year. Many members of the Board will be returning and I am grateful for their willingness to continue. There are those who are leaving the Board, and while I will miss their close counsel, I know that they will continue to contribute to our Temple family in other ways. Finally, I thank all of you of the Temple Beth Emet community for your continued confidence in me, the love you show, the energies you add to our family, and everything you do to make Temple Beth Emet "the Temple with a Heart."

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

the Bus Station to take me to Tel-Aviv along Jaffa Road, I saw a sign in 4 languages. It said, "Beware of snipers on the roof tops." Then I remembered that the Jaffa Road was in the midst of the No-Man's Land that divided Jewish Jerusalem from Jordanian Jerusalem. How terrible to divide a city into enclaves I thought.

My next trip to Jerusalem was in 1976. I remember walking down several thousand year old streets in the OLD City like I had done in 1970-71. However, this time, I had to leap over large water pipes and smaller but still inconvenient electrical tubes. "What is going on?" I asked one of the workers. "For the first time in the History of Old Jerusalem, there will be running water and electricity for all the people."

Truly, one of my fondest memories of Jerusalem happened last year during the Temple's first ever tour of Israel. I had requested that for the two Shabbats we were in Israel, both would be in Jerusalem. It was two truly fantastic times, broken ankles notwithstanding.

On the second Shabbat in Jerusalem, Mina and I went walking. As we walked down the center of the New City toward Independence Park, we saw a large group of Africans in very beautiful formal attire. As I looked closer, I noticed a young woman in white and the man standing next to her being photographed. Yes, it was a wedding. But a wedding on Shabbat? Oh yes, to the rest of the world it was Saturday.

What a beautiful place, Jerusalem, what a beautiful time, Saturday (Shabbat) afternoon, what a beautiful sight, young people getting married.

Of all my memories of Jerusalem, this one brought home to me the internationalization of Jerusalem. But this internationalization did not come by itself. Israel has striven from the first days of the occupation to make sure that all the holy sites were protected, see my first memory of the Temple Mount. And that all the people of Jerusalem would have modern hygiene and that even visitors would feel at home enough to consecrate their lives.

While most of my memories of Jerusalem are happy, there is one memory that haunts me. Right after the Six Day War, one of my leaders in the Zionist Youth Movement I belonged to, Young Judaea, made a prophecy. He said, "People of the world will turn against us and our unification of Jerusalem. They will fear that we will do to the Christians and the Moslems, what they have done to us. And they will seek to take Jerusalem from us." In fact, sadly enough, he has been right, our allies from Israel's birth to the mid-sixties have turned against us and vilified her. I say to them, as I say to all, let the facts speak for themselves, a Jerusalem United in Religious freedom, physical (health) freedom and social freedom must never be divided again.

Let me paraphrase in closing, this most famous of Jerusalem ballads:

"Jerusalem of Gold, of Copper and of Light,
For All your Songs I will be the 'Harpist. . ."

B'Ahava,
Rabbi Mark

Happy Shavuot!!!

The 2016/17 Religious School year is now behind us and our students ended the year with a number of activities during the month of May. On May 7th, we observed Yom Hashoah and were joined by Board of Directors member, Herb Murez, who spoke to the students about his experiences during WW2 as an Austrian Holocaust Survivor. The following week the students celebrated Israeli Independence Day by learning about the country from some of our staff members who have visited; they were then treated to ice cream by our Parents Association in honor of Israel's birthday. And we honored our Religious School and Preschool faculty and staff for all of their hard work this year by observing Teacher Appreciation Day on the final day of classes on May 21st. Immediately following dismissal on our final day the Religious School and Preschool kids ended the school year by participating in our first ever Temple Beth Emet Dance-A-Thon. Wishing all of our students a safe and fun filled summer. We look forward to seeing you when Religious School resumes in the fall.

There will be a meeting of the Temple Education Committee on June 12th at 7:00 PM to discuss ideas for next year's Adult Education Series, all Temple members are welcome and are encouraged to attend. The ideas for this annual series are traditionally suggested by members of the congregation and your input and we welcome suggestions regarding the series for next year .

Message from The Sisterhood President

Dear Members:

In last month's Chai Times, I wrote that for both Holocaust Remembrance Day and Israel Independence Day, the Sisterhood voted to purchase trees to be planted in Israel, rather than choosing one of the days over the other to hold an event. Well, two trees were purchased and the certificates we received are splendid. If you would like to see them they are being displayed in the entryway of the Temple on the console table, beautifully framed by Iris Abrams, our Sisterhood Treasurer.

In May, instead of a meeting, we had another Parking Lot Sale. This time we were so much more organized because we had done this once before. We had at least half a dozen ladies who participated with goods to sell and we sold so many more items this time than last. We really did quite well. I was very sorry that the Sunday school parents decided not to hold their breakfast, as many of us were counting on a morning of "Eat and Shop."

On behalf of the Sisterhood, I attended the annual Holocaust Memorial Commemoration which was being held at Temple Emanuel this year. There were six survivors present, including our beloved, Herb Murez. One of the survivors had written a book about her experience and she was showcased by elaborating on her experience and why she wrote the book. Our own Musical Director, Robyn Kreisberg, and our Lay-Cantor, Kyle Orlemann, were there to provide the beautiful music as the introduction to the ceremony. Rabbi Mark Sobel and Leona Zollman said a prayer together. Rabbi Sobel also gave a beautiful benediction at the end of the evening. This year, the Sanctuary was packed with people, from all walks of life in Burbank. Having arrived early, I helped the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel set up the tables and get the food ready for the reception afterward. It was a very nice evening. It was at this venue that I found out that Family Promise will be starting up again and will be at St. David's on Glenoaks starting the June 11th through the 17th. Previously, the Sisterhood provided dinner on Sunday evening, and I will leave it up to the ladies to see if they want to continue this tradition.

I have been with the Temple for three years now, and for the past two years I have been Sisterhood President. I want to thank you all for believing in me, and putting up with my constant fund-raising ideas. I also want to thank you all for cheering me up when things did not go as I had hoped. I would have liked to go on some outings with all the Sisterhood, and create a beautiful memory of an outing with good friends, like those who went to Israel together last year. I cannot express how important it was to me that you all supported me in my endeavor, and how much I enjoyed representing you all as your President. Well, this next year we have a new President, Fran Bourne-Johnson, and I am sure she will serve you well and with great enthusiasm. The second Friday night Service in July is always the evening that the Sisterhood installs their new Board. This year, Installation is on July 8th and I am looking forward to seeing you all there.

Yours in the Sisterhood,

Cathy Zitnick
Sisterhood President

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, June 27, 2017 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Cry of the Peacock - by Gina B. Nahai

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

*Nahai begins her vivid, intriguing historical chronicle in the 1780s in Persia and concludes 200 years later in contemporary Iran. Following a family of Jews through seven generations, from Juyy Bar, the Jewish ghetto of Esfahan, to America, she begins with Esther the Soothsayer. Versed in magic and witchcraft Esther can foretell the future. She appears in the dreams and visions of her progeny, including her granddaughter, Peacock, born in the late 1860s, whose life spans well over a century. Nahai weaves together the brutal history of Muslims, Jews, the shahs and colonial forces that played a part in transforming Persia into Iran, using fables and legends to give much of the novel an exotic, fairy-tale effect. But as the story reaches the 20th century, readers will encounter the exiled Pahlavi shah, Mossadeq and Khomeini, and recognize recent events. Nahai succeeds in personalizing history, opening a window onto the baffling political history of Iran and its neighbors.

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.
