"The Temple With A Heart"

"In the house of a wise man none is ever slow to perform the duties of hospitality." ~ Philo

At Friday Night Services, we recite the prayer "V'Shamru... Et ha Shabbat." Before we actually sing, I remind everybody that having the Shabbat you want full of significant others, family and friends, you must plan ahead. Shabbat cannot be done last minute. The cliché is, "Lack of Planning on your part does not constitute an emergency on my part." So, too, the High Holidays. Personally, we should start asking others for forgiveness as soon as we realize we have hurt their feelings. Amongst our Sephardic brethren, they have already started their Selichot (Pardon me, G-d) services. Our Selichot Service will be Saturday night September 16.

In 3 weeks, we will celebrate Rosh HaShanah, where many of us will begin formally to ask G-d and each other for forgiveness for our sins. Many of us will begin to prepare for guests to come to us after services and to celebrate and hope for a "Good Year" (the meaning of Shana Tova).

But how many of us have prepared for that Good Year? There is not enough time for us to have the goodness we deserve by waiting for the last minute. Inviting someone to our home takes forethought. We believe it, but few of us do it.

Have a sweet year!

High Holy Days are: Rosh Hashanah begins on September 20th through Yom Kippur on September 30th. For 16 years, we had our High Holy Days' Services at St. Jude's Church. Due to circumstances [at St. Jude's Church] the facility is no longer available for us. We are observing our High Holy Days here in our Temple. As Rabbi Mark says, "There is no place like home for the holidays..."

Tot Shabbat Service is at 5:30 PM and Pizza Night at 6:00 PM will resume Friday, September 1st. Our Family Shabbat Service will continue to be at 7:00 PM. (See our ad on Page 11.)

Religious School begins September 10th!
Welcome to our Students!!!

OPEN HOUSE
ALSO ON SEPT. 10

The Temple Sisterhood is still having their Annual Honey Box Sale for Rosh Hashanah. They can mail a sweet reminder to a family member (and/or a member of the military) for you. You may also simply purchase them and take them home with you. A description and a order blank are on pages 8 and 9.

More than merely inviting people into our homes, how many of us create lasting friendships that prepare for others to feel at home in our residences?

When I am looking for examples that help me with my thoughts I often look at the Hebrew language. It is called G-d's language for a reason and I often see goodness, originality, godliness, in its letters and words.

The Hebrew word for house is Bayyit : Bet, Yod and Tav. Each of these letters has an overhang. In fact, Tav, is like an upside down English U meaning it totally covers you. The meaning then is that a house in all its parts should shelter you. That is why when the ceiling leaks we feel so bad. That, and the expense, even with Insurance.

The Hebrew word for home is Bayyitah, there is an additional letter, a hay. It, too, has an overhang, but it has a vertical part that only goes up halfway, to me, signifying an openness to the outside world.

A house shelters you, a home shelters you but at the same time is open to the outside world.

A further way of looking at the difference between a house and a home is that a home is a house with G-d in it. The letter hay is short for HaShem (the name) which refers to G-d. How does G-d add to a house? We already have protection, so what else is there? After we acknowledge the oneness of G-d, we are told to love G-d. Therefore, a home is a place that gives one shelter but is opens the door to shelter others with love.

We need to go from the personally focused, pardoning, to the external, inviting. If we make people feel welcome in our homes, then we have gone beyond the 'forgive me for any hurts I have given you' to the 'let us share our lives together and together we will make sure that neither of us is hurt.'

This year we are home for High Holidays, let us open ourselves to others and enable them to find shelter, protection, and love with us in our personal homes and, of course, in our Temple Beth Emet home.

B'ahava v'Shana Tova,

Rabbi Mark

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE-September 2017

This month our Temple family will gather together again for the High Holidays. For the first time we will gather at our own Temple campus. The High Holidays is the one time of the year when all the different "tribes" of our Temple family come together.

One group will be the regulars who are often at Temple. We come most Friday nights, we might come for Adult Education or book club or wine and cheese evenings too. The Temple feels like home to us. Another group will be people who put in a lot of volunteer effort at Temple. We serve on the Board of Directors, are active in Sisterhood or Religious School Parents Association, edit the Chai Times, fix or clean things, or lend a hand whenever needed. We not only feel at home at Temple, we feel like homeowners because homeowners know there is always something around the house that needs attention. Yet another group consists of members who might come to services a few times during the year, but always come on High Holidays. Temple is familiar to us, and maybe at one time we were regulars while the kids were in religious school or when life was less hectic. Finally, some of us either purchase High Holiday tickets yearly or are joining us for the first time. We might have never actually set foot in 600 North Buena Vista Street.

Whatever path brings us together at the High Holidays, the important thing is that we are together as a community. Judaism depends on community. It is possible, of course, to maintain one's Jewish identity in a solitary setting, but the power of the Jewish people is in our shared experience. It was our strength during our journey from Egypt to the Promised Land, during our sovereignty of Israel and Judea, during the Diaspora, and our emergence from the darkness of the Shoah and the founding of the modern State of Israel.

Gathering the Temple Beth Emet family during the High Holidays, we have many ways to experience community. Not only are High Holiday services a social opportunity to reconnect with others, but there is also music, teaching, and of course, prayer and the spiritual magic of the High Holiday liturgy.

Rabbi Mark might have a problem with me saying this, but I don't think prayer is the most important element. (Rabbi, at least I didn't say "teaching" was not important.) The most important element is the gathering. The gathering supports all the elements of the High Holiday experience. We all come to the High Holidays from different directions, we come to the High Holidays seeking spiritual renewal by different means.

This year we will be gathering at our smaller venue. We will be sitting a little closer together, the music, the prayers, the teaching, will all be more intimate. That presents us with an interesting opportunity. Instead of a "big show" in a big ballroom or soaring sanctuary, we get to stay home and show ourselves as we really are - a diverse, welcoming family that likes to get together at our cozy synagogue and enjoys being together. In our homey, warm, haimish, unpretentious synagogue we can experience the essence of our "Temple With a Heart." It is the people, the community, and the love.

This High Holiday season it will be easier to take note of the people around you, to reconnect with those you know, and to introduce yourself to those you do not. Welcome home to Temple Beth Emet!

On behalf of the Temple administration as well as my family and myself, I wish you "I'shanah tovah tikatevu," may it be a good and sweet year for all of us.

--IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

Summer seems to have passed too quickly as it often does but as the seasons change and a new school year gets underway we are looking forward to a new year of Educational opportunities for our Temple members. Registration for the 2017/18 (5777-78) Religious School year is now underway and the first day of classroom instruction will be on Sunday September 10. Registration forms and information have been emailed to the families of all returning students and can be found on our Temple website here:

<http://www.templebethemet.com/education/religious-school-forms/>

We are asking that parents print and complete all of the required forms (you will see a checklist indicating which forms need to be completed and returned on the distributed email) at home and then bring them along with your payment on the first day of instruction. Rabbi Sobel will welcome all of our students and their families in the Sanctuary at 9:00 AM parents should plan on spending a little time completing the registration process and meeting our faculty and staff on that first day.

We are currently looking for looking for new members for this year's Religious School Parents Association. Our groups purpose is to promote the Religious School and its activities to the greater community, to assist with the planning and presentation of our Religious School holiday activities and to act as a forum for parental input. Our first meeting of the new school year will be held on Sunday, September 17th at 9:00 AM; our meetings are generally held on the second Sunday of each month during Religious School from 9:00-10:00 AM. Everyone is welcome and is encouraged to attend!

Our 2017/18 Adult Education series will begin in November. A meeting held last June to select a topic for this year's series resulted in the decision to center this year's classes around the topic of what it means to be a Jew. This lively and interactive 5-part series is taught by Rabbi Sobel and often is comprised of class members with varying religious and philosophical points of view. Please make plans to join us, more details will follow shortly.

ART CLASSES AT TEMPLE BETH EMET

Morrie Bolter will teach sketching again!! For those who attended and are delighted, we will continue to hone our talents! For those who missed classes, you may still join the class and benefit from the instructions. The next class will be on Wednesday, September 13th at 7:00 PM in Blum Hall. Reservations are required. Please call Barbara Bolter at (818) 761-3116. Donations are greatly appreciated.

We are offering an Adult Education class in the daytime, taught by Rabbi Mark Sobel! Please let us know if you are interested in attending a daytime class at Temple by contacting the Temple Office at 818 843-4787.

Congratulations Temple Beth Emet - your preschool is growing! Our Pre-Kindergarten classroom was officially licensed and we have a few spaces left. Joining Hayley Wood and Gina Levitt, we welcome Vanessa Jara to our staff and are so thrilled to have her. Vanessa comes to us from Burbank Unified School District where she has taught both kindergarten and transitional kindergarten. This is going to be another great year!

We're Growing!

Now offering preschool & pre-kindergarten programs.

Thank you for your support of Temple Beth Emet Sisterhood!

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

We have a wonderful Jewish Book Club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, September 26, 2017 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Jewish Pirates of the Caribbean: How a Generation of Swashbuckling Jews Carved Out an Empire in the New World in Their Quest for Treasure, Religious Freedom--and Revenge - by Edward Kritzler

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

*In this lively debut work of history, Edward Kritzler tells the tale of an unlikely group of swashbuckling Jews who ransacked the high seas in the aftermath of the Spanish Inquisition. At the end of the fifteenth century, many Jews had to flee Spain and Portugal. The most adventurous among them took to the seas as freewheeling outlaws. In ships bearing names such as the Prophet Samuel, Queen Esther, and Shield of Abraham, they attacked and plundered the Spanish fleet while forming alliances with other European powers to ensure the safety of Jews living in hiding. Filled with high-sea adventures—including encounters with Captain Morgan and other legendary pirates—Jewish Pirates of the Caribbean reveals a hidden chapter in Jewish history as well as the cruelty, terror, and greed that flourished during the Age of Discovery.

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.

If you wish to buy ahead of time or preorder your books for the next three months, they are as follows:

September - Jewish Pirates of the Caribbean by Edward Kritzler
October - Everything is Illuminated by Jonathan Safran Foer

As a Temple Family, we come together to acknowledge the passing of two extraordinary people who have recently passed on. Comedian and Political Activist, Dick Gregory and Comedian, Actor, Director and Philanthropist, Jerry Lewis. Both of these people spent their lifetimes entertaining and enlightening their audiences. Mr. Gregory brought Social Awareness and Nutrition (as a means to optimum health through his Bahamian Diet and products, such as Bee Pollen) to the limelight. Mr. Lewis brought compassion for people suffering with Muscular Dystrophy (mainly children) and laughter as medicine, and so many other contributions.

We ask G-d to bless their souls in peace and comfort those who are bereaved by the loss of them. May the memories of them be a blessing to all.

A little help. A big difference.

The assisted living services at The Heights at Burbank Senior Living Community are about the whole family and the whole YOU.

Of course, we can help you with your daily needs.

But did you know you will also have options for fitness, socializing, healthy fine dining, and more? And services are tailored to you, so you'll get just the right amount of help you need, when you request it.

But the best part? No matter if you need a little help or a lot, the difference you'll feel will be amazing.

Please call The Heights at Burbank to schedule your complimentary lunch and tour.

All with matching bag and kippot.
All at reasonable prices.

The Temple Library has a beautiful set of Judaic Encyclopedias available. If you wish to consider having them for your home or a gift, please contact the Temple Librarian, Barbara Lux. There is no set price for the volumes, but a nice monetary donation to the Temple's General Fund would be lovingly appreciated.

You may leave a message for me at the Temple Office at 818 843-4787, and I will return your call, or send a message to my email address: Formerlygidget@gmail.com.

I will be happy to show them to you.

High Holidays at TBE

Saturday, September 16 at 7:30PM

Selichot Services

Our Torahs don their white High Holiday covers and we come together to begin the period of self-preparation for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Wednesday, September 20 at 8:00PM

Thursday, September 21 at 10:00AM

Rosh Hashanah

The Jewish New Year festival is marked by the blowing of the shofar, and begins the ten days of penitence.

Friday, September 29 at 8:00PM

Saturday, September 30 at 10:00AM

Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur is the moment in Jewish time when we dedicate our mind, body, and soul to reconciliation with God, our fellow human beings, and ourselves.

Friday, October 7 beginning at 6:00PM

Sukkot - Pizza in the Hut

Celebrate the “festival of booths” with Pizza Night followed by Family Service in the Sukkah.

Thursday, October 12 beginning at 6:00PM

Simcha Torah (Yizkor service TBA)

Details to follow. We conclude the High Holidays by completing the cycle of Torah reading and begin again. We march around with the Torah, sing songs, wave flags, and have a great time.

L'shanah tovah tikatevu!
