"The Temple With A Heart"

"May Israel, once bereft of her children, now delight as they gather together in joy. Blessed are you, God, who lets Zion rejoice with her children." (Wedding Traditional Blessings)

This past Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur we were talking about our home at Beth Emet, physically and spiritually. What its roots are what its trunk is and where its fruits are going.

In a few days it will be Sukkot, Tabernacles, where we build simple structures to remind us of the travels in the desert and later, in the land of Israel, to go out and tend to our crops.

These are simple structures as they will be temporary. We, as Jews, now a days add different decorations to them. No Jew I know wants to live in just a simple place. Check out our art in the sanctuary, usually a no, no, but, for or our independence, a yes, yes. Coming right after Yom Kippur where we cleanse our souls with confessions of sins, these buildings also signify that we are at ground zero for possessions and artificial things in life. Now is the time to rebuild! But we must rebuild in our own individual way.

The first and most important addition to the four sides and 3 walls and the roof of Palm branches, are the people who we have invited to our Sukkah. They even have a special name USHPIZIM. Traditionally, they are 7 Biblical leaders of our people: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Aaron and David.

Without going into detail, these 7 men are very different in personality, spirituality and for sure temperament. We have before us everything from Warrior to Poet, arbitrator to enforcer, dreamer to realist, monogamist to polygamist, believers to doubters. And everything in between!

Other guests not mentioned are the great women in the Bible: Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, Leah, Asenath, Tzipporah, Elisheba, Deborah, Michal and Bathsheba.

Perhaps the rabbis who set up the tradition felt that the great men of the Bible would come if invited and bring their wives, but it still bothers me that the women are not mentioned by name for an invitation.

It makes me think, more so, about who we invite and who come to our Sukkah. This past High Holidays people have rejoined the temple who left for various reasons. How many though are never going to rejoin because of hurt feelings, embarrassment, and lack of acknowledgment? Just like the great women of the Bible, they have been left out of recognition.

To utilize the song, "Let there be peace and let it begin with me. . ." I want to be the first:

"ANYONE WHOM I HAVE HURT, OR IGNORED, OR TREATED POORLY, PLEASE FORGIVE ME.
COME AND JOIN US IN OUR SUKKAH."

Please, members of the Temple Beth Emet community, if my pledge has touched you at all, reach out to those you have hurt in any way, let us join in the mitzvah of helping the return of exiles. We still have time to ask for forgiveness, and if we are blessed, maybe those people who were once sitting, eating laughing and, yes, crying with us at our temple will come home to us and then we will sing, "Barukim Haba'im" so loud, that the hills of Burbank will shout with Joy.

As did our predecessors, we will "reform" the concept of USHPIZIM to its true meaning, HONORED GUESTS OF THE HOUSE OF TRUTH !

Hag Sameah v'B'Ahava,

Rabbi Mark

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE – October 2017

Each of us has a story about what led us to Temple Beth Emet and why we stayed. The common thread throughout these stories is this – we had a need, our Temple filled that need, and we found a home here.

At Temple Beth Emet, we have made a community that welcomes anyone who is looking for a place to find a spiritual home and an extended family.

If you look at social media – Facebook, Yelp, and Google for example – you can see what some of our family are saying about their Temple experience:

I have never felt more welcomed at a temple. As a progressive reform temple, the congregation accepts everyone with open arms, and makes you feel like family right away!

If you are looking for a small temple with a haimish feel, instead of a bar mitzvah factory or a fashion show at every service, then this is the temple for you.

Temple Beth Emet is a wonderful home for reform Judaism in Burbank. It is warm, welcoming and truly "Hamish." Burbank is truly lucky to have Temple Beth Emet as part of the community.

This is a lovely temple. I grew up across the country and just walking in here made me feel like I was at a temple from my childhood. We couldn't be happier to have found it.

Truth be told, what moves these people to praise our Temple doesn't all come from Rabbi Mark or Robyn or the Sisterhood or the Board. It comes from you. Nothing we do matters without you. You are the reason Temple Beth Emet feels like home.

For years, we have been asking ourselves how can we get more people to visit our Temple. Because we know if we can get them in the door they will like it here and many will join our family. The answer has been here all along, the answer is you.

We look for sources of new ideas and programs to make our Temple even more appealing, not only to current members, but to prospective members. The answer has been here all along, the answer is you.

We wrestle with the budget and wonder sometimes how are we going to pay the salaries, insurance, utilities, fix the 40-year-old building systems, and how can we make our Temple more attractive and inviting. Guess what? The answer again is you.

So I'm asking you to bring us people so we can grow our family. I'm asking you to contribute your skills to help maintain and improve our home. I'm asking for your ideas and creativity to help us remain vital and relevant.

And I'm asking you for your financial support because without your substantial and continued financial support, we will not keep our doors open.

This is our home and we all need to take care of it. Every synagogue depends on the support of its community, and without your support there is no guarantee that this Temple will be here in the future. But with your strong and continued support, financial and otherwise, our possibilities are without end. Please, help turn those possibilities into realities for us and especially for the generations of the future.

SIMCHAT TORAH CELEBRATION!

Thursday, October 12,
2017

We complete the reading of our Torah and begin a new reading cycle. We'll march around the Temple singing and waving flags, and unroll the scroll around the whole congregation.

SPEND THE EVENING AT TEMPLE BETH EMET
AS WE CONCLUDE THE HIGH HOLIDAY SEASON!
6:00 PM - Dairy Potluck Dinner!

Please contact the Temple office or email office@templebethemet.com to RSVP and volunteer a dish.

The 2017/2018 Religious School year has begun and our new year is off to a great start! Rabbi Sobel, our faculty and staff welcomed all of our returning students, as well as some students that we are delighted to have joining us for the first time for the first day of instruction on September 10th. Much of our first few weeks were spent learning about and celebrating the High Holidays. A special thanks go out to our Temple Sisterhood for providing apples and honey (with which to bring in a sweet New Year for all of our students and their families this year). If you have not yet had a chance to register your child for Religious School, or if you know of a child who is interested in joining us, it's not too late; all of the registration information and forms can be found at: <http://www.templebethemet.com/education/religious-school-forms/> Or you can contact the Temple office for more information.

This year's High Holiday Children's Services, which were led by Josh Sobel, Brittney Amster and Mary Gura, were quite well attended by both students from our Religious School and our Temple Preschool. It was once again my honor to accompany Robyn Kreisberg and the mighty Temple Beth Emet Choir and I agree with the many people who have remarked to me about how nice it was for us to be able to celebrate the High Holidays at home this year.

Our 2017/18 Adult Education Series will begin on Tuesday, November 14 at 7:00 PM. The topic for this year's Series was selected at a meeting last Spring by a committee, which included Rabbi Mark, David Zollman, Eileen Martin, and me. It was decided the subject for this year's series will be "What Does It Mean To Be A Jew?" In our November class, we will be focusing on the question of "Does It Take Ritual?" Our classes meet monthly through the month of March and are open to all Temple members, as well as any other interested members of the community. There is a suggested donation of $5 per class (or just $20 for the entire series of 5 classes). Please plan on joining us for what is always a lively and thought-provoking Series.

A Place for Learning

ART CLASSES AT TEMPLE BETH EMET

Art Classes are on Hiatus!

Morrie Bolter will teach sketching again!! For those who attended and are delighted, we will continue to hone our talents early next year! For those who missed classes, you may still join the class and benefit from the instructions. The next class will be in January 2018 in Blum Hall. The exact date of the class will be in the December 2017 issue of The Chai Times. Reservations are required. Please call Barbara Bolter at (818) 761-3116. Donations are greatly appreciated.

We are offering an Adult Education class in the daytime, taught by Rabbi Mark Sobel! Please let us know if you are interested in attending a daytime class at Temple by contacting the Temple Office at 818 843-4787.

Our preschool year began last week and lots of friendships are already forming! The tours continue to be scheduled and there seems to be lots of buzz surrounding the preschool that Temple Beth Emet opened just one year ago! The school year began with each child receiving a special note and some "jitter glitter" to be sprinkled on and around them in order to remove any jitters they might have about starting school. It worked!! I'm told everyone had a great night sleep and was anxious to sprinkle the glitter and head to preschool on their first day back.

we're creating...

and discovering...

we're working cooperatively...

and looking forward to a FANTASTIC year!

TEMPLE BETH EMET SISTERHOOD - FRAN BOURNE-JOHNSON

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Emet met on Sunday, September 10th. We had several new members join us. It was busy, productive and a lively meeting. Many thanks to all who attended.

The Honey boxes are selling well. We still have a few left and will continue selling them through the holidays, unless we run out first. The boxes cost $13 each or 2 for $25. We hope that congregants will consider buying one and donate it to the Military. Kyle Orlemann will be taking them to the Base in West LA. Contact Shirley Abramson at shirleyabramson@yahoo.com or 818-430-6050.

The Sisterhood participated in Family Promise. We participate quarterly. Many thanks to all who contributed.

The Sisterhood will be participating in a Hanukkah Event at McCroarty Hall in Sunland on Tuesday, December 19th. The Rabbi will attend. Some of the planned activities were discussed. Lucy Berman has been instrumental in setting up this event.

Robin Reiter will be working with Shirley Abramson on the Gift Shop. Robin is creating an online Hanukkah Boutique. Congregants will be able to order Hanukkah paraphernalia online.

There was some discussion of fund raising ideas. This discussion will continue at the next Sisterhood Meeting.

We will meet the first Sunday of every month at 10:00 AM in Blum Hall. The next meeting will be at 10:00 AM (in Blum Hall) on Sunday, October 1st (the day after Yom Kippur).

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

Temple Beth Emet - Book Club

We have a wonderful Jewish Book Club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, October 24, 2017 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Everything is Illuminated by Jonathan Safran Foer

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

Synopsis: Everything is Illuminated is Jonathan Safran Foer's bestselling novel of a search for truth. The inspiration for the Liev Schreiber film, starring Elijah Wood. A young man arrives in the Ukraine, clutching in his hand a tattered photograph. He is searching for the woman who, fifty years ago, saved his grandfather from the Nazis. Unfortunately, he is aided in his quest by Alex, a translator with an uncanny ability to mangle English into bizarre new forms; a "blind" old man haunted by memories of the war; and an undersexed guide dog named Sammy Davis Jr. What they are looking for seems elusive -- a truth hidden behind veils of time, language and the horrors of war. What they find turns all their worlds upside down . . . "An astonishing feat of writing: hilariously funny and deeply serious, a gripping narrative. Extraordinary" The Times, "One of the most impressive novel debuts of recent years," Joyce Carol Oates, The Times Literary Supplement. A first novel of startling originality," Jay McInerney, Observer. "Showy, smart. Made me laugh a lot," Susan Sontag, The Times Literary Supplement. "It seems hard to believe that such a young writer can have such a deep understanding of both comedy and tragedy," Erica Wagner, The Times. "A box of treasures," LA Times' "Funny, life affirming, brilliant" Esquire. Jonathan Safran Foer was born in 1977. He is the author of Everything is Illuminated, which won the National Jewish Book Award and the Guardian First Book award; Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close, which is now a major film starring Tom Hanks and Sandra Bullock; and Eating Animals. He is also the editor of A Convergence of Birds.

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.

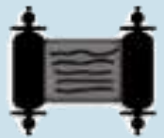

If you wish to buy ahead of time or preorder your book for next month, it is as follows:

WE ARE PLANNING A SALUTE TO AMERICAN VETERANS AT TEMPLE BETH EMET
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH AT 7:00 PM.

WE WILL HAVE A DINNER, ENTERTAINMENT AND WONDERFUL CAMARADERIE, AS WE HONOR THOSE AMONG US WHO HAVE SACRIFICED AND PROTECTED OUR CITIZENS
SINCE THE INCEPTION OF OUR COUNTRY, "AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL." WE WILL HOST AMERICAN VETERANS OF ALL BRANCHES OF MILITARY SERVICE AND GIVE THEM THE GRATITUDE AND RESPECT THEY SO RICHLY DESERVE.

ALL AMERICAN VETERANS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND FREE OF CHARGE.
ALL OTHERS ARE ASKED TO MAKE A MUCH APPRECIATED DONATION.

PLEASE CALL THE TEMPLE OFFICE, AT 818 843-4787, TO RESERVE YOUR PLACE[S] AT THE DINNER TABLE AND LET US KNOW HOW MANY PEOPLE IN YOUR PARTY TO EXPECT.

DONATIONS ARE APPRECIATED. THE MENU IS: A BAKED POTATO BAR, VEGETABLE CHILI, SALAD, BEVERAGES AND DESSERT.

The Temple Library has a beautiful set of Judaic Encyclopedias available. If you wish to consider having them for your home or a gift, please contact the Temple Librarian, Barbara Lux. There is no set price for the volumes, but a nice monetary donation to the Temple's General Fund would be lovingly appreciated.

You may leave a message for me at the Temple Office at 818 843 - 4787, and I will return your call, or send a message to my email address: Formerlygidget@gmail.com.

I will be happy to show them to you.
