"The Temple With A Heart"

"Have I told you lately that I love you?
Have I told you there's no one else above you?"

(From the Song of the same name.)

When I first became senior Rabbi of the Temple in 1996, I had several advisors. One I argued with constantly. Thank G-d it got better, over the years, but then, at one Board Meeting this board member and I really began to argue like old times.

Two days later he went into a coma and died. I feel bad to this day that my last dealings with him were argumentative.

A recent event in the Temple family reminded me of another somewhat similar event. A fellow teacher who was teaching a special Autistic after school program at Temple several years ago called me in terrible hysteria and told me that her husband upon leaving their home on the way to work was killed in an automobile accident. If that wasn't bad enough, she told me that the last words her daughter had spoken to her father were angry words in the midst of an argument. The girl was beside herself. How could she live with the idea that her last words to her father were angry and demeaning and so full of venom?

Just recently these two past events came hurtling back to me.

A Temple member has lost a child due to the suddenness of an automobile crash. As she put it, "By the time I got to the hospital, he was brain dead, his heart was being kept alive by a machine. I never got a chance to say good-bye."

This Temple member's grief goes way beyond mine and my teacher friend's daughter. It is the grief of the loss of a child. When you create a child you are acting out the highest form of Imitatio Dei, imitating G-d. When I heard the news from this parent, I could not wait to hug Joshua and, you know, if the children were nearby Mina would have gotten into the car and gone to them. Alas, Cleveland is far! But sending love while not the same, will have to do.

Our tradition teaches, G-d mourns the loss of even the gourd (Jonah 4) which G-d has created.

Can we do any less? Of course not. But let us go beyond our own physical creations to those whom we have a spiritual connection. The people we worship with, play with and interact with. We must mourn the loss of even a moment of joy with those we care for.

While we have not created their life, we have created a life for them. How can we make their life bitter for even an instant?

What would our lives be like without them? My friend, our Temple member and her family, now have a great void in their lives. Some will say that the loss, of a friend, a buddy, a pal is less deep than that of a spouse. But, while the loss of a child is the most painful that one can endure, I have seen it twice in my own family, all other losses can be as painful.

So as this is the month of Heshvan with no holidays other than Shabbat, let us create celebrations when we can. Joy, making the simple day more lovingly intricate by adding happy feelings to the fabric of our relationships with others and by removing those actions which leech the rich tapestry of feelings of love from each other.

Let's make this our first prayer of the Heshvon Celebration Religious Service:

"Have I told you lately that I love you?
Have I told you there's no one else above you?
You fill my life with laughter, somehow you make it better
You Ease my troubles, that's what you do

There's a love less defined
And its yours and its mine."

Each day find someone precious to you and chant these words, all or part. Do it! The rewards of unsolicited Love are great.

Take away the sadness of would've and could've

And replace it with love and spiritual caresses!

Rabbi Hillel said it best, "If not now, when?"

Do it for Love, now, do not hesitate!

B'ahava,

Rabbi Mark

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE – November 2017

I'm going to Memphis this month for a family reunion. When I tell people I was born in Memphis many say, "I didn't know there were Jews in Memphis." In fact, the first known Jew to settle in Memphis did so in 1849. The Jews that later began to populate the city were peddlers who established retail businesses. As was usually the case when Jews began to settle in an area, the first Jewish organization established was the Jewish Benevolent Society. In 1853, the first congregation, B'nai Israel, was founded. B'nai Israel still exists as Temple Israel, a Reform congregation.

My father, his mother, and his sisters came to Memphis sometime around 1920. They came from Brooklyn, of which no one ever says, "I didn't know there were Jews there." My grandmother, a widow, married a widower who had a son and daughter. My father grew up in Memphis and always considered it home. The family belonged to Baron Hirsch Congregation, an Orthodox congregation founded in 1884, although part of the family was affiliated with another Orthodox congregation, Anshei Sphard, founded in 1893. Both congregations still exist.

My family left Memphis in 1958, so I do not have memory of life in Memphis. We spent about two years in Dallas, of which I also have no memory, and moved to Sherman Oaks in 1960. Later, we moved to the Fairfax (and Pico) area of Los Angeles, and stayed roughly in that area until we moved to Anaheim in 1971. You might say, "I didn't know there were Jews in Anaheim." In fact, Benjamin Dreyfus moved to Anaheim in 1858, opened a store, and was part of a group that started a winery in Anaheim where kosher wine was produced. My family attended Temple Beth Emet in Anaheim, a Conservative congregation founded in 1958. That congregation still exists, although its membership is diminishing.

After Diane and I married, we lived in Glendale and then Sun Valley. In 1995 we joined Temple Beth Emet of Burbank, also founded in 1958. I am sure at one time or another, when you told someone about our Temple they remarked, "I didn't know there were Jews in Burbank." You can tell them that in 1947, the Jewish Community Council was founded, which exists today as Temple Emanu El. Along with our Temple and Chabad, we have a thriving and active Jewish community in Burbank.

Recently, a family friend turned 90 and she went to live with her daughter in Greenville, North Carolina. Are there Jews in Greenville, North Carolina? Well, there were some Jews in the area around the beginning of the 1900s, their tenure was short lived. A permanent Jewish community did not become established until 1936. In 1977, Bayt Israel, originally a Conservative congregation, was established. It is now affiliated with both United Synagogue (Conservative) and the Union for Reform Judaism.

Jewish communities thrive in a lot of areas we might not expect and every community has a story of its pioneers and organizations. You never know when you might say, "I didn't know there were Jews in _____!"

From all of us at Temple Beth Emet, we wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving.

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

The Religious School year is moving along rapidly! Our students celebrated the holiday of Sukkot on October 8th and enjoyed our annual Sukkot breakfast courtesy of the Religious School Parents Association. Many thanks to Cherie Rye, Jessica Wertlieb, Leora Dreyfuss, Mary Gurra and everyone else who helped with this event. Our Junior Choir was featured at this year's Pizza In The Hut Shabbat and assisted the Rabbi in leading the Service. Planning is now underway for our Annual Hanukkah Celebration and Fundraising Performance which will take place on Sunday, December 17th. Please mark your calendars and plan on joining us. As they have for the past several years, the Rabbi and Robyn are working on an original musical specifically for this occasion, and without wanting to give too much away, I can tell you that this year's performance will be based on a Broadway classic! More information to follow in next month's column.

Our 2017/18 Adult Education Series begins this month. Please join us on Tuesday, November 14th at 7:00 PM for the first class of this year's series the subject of which will be "What Does It Mean To Be A Jew?" At our first class we will be focusing on the question of "Does It Take Ritual?" These lively and thought provoking classes feature material specially prepared by Rabbi Mark as well as discussion among class members of varying backgrounds and points of view. Our classes will meet monthly through the month of March and are open to all Temple members as well as any other interested members of the community. There is a suggested donation of $5 per class (or just $20 for the entire series of 5 classes). We hope to see you there!

ART CLASSES AT TEMPLE BETH EMET

Art Classes are on Hiatus!

Morrie Bolter will teach sketching again!! For those who attended and are delighted, we will continue to hone our talents early next year! For those who missed classes, you may still join the class and benefit from the instructions. The next class will be in January 2018 in Blum Hall. The exact date of the class will be in the December 2017 issue of The Chai Times. Reservations are required. Please call Barbara Bolter at (818) 761-3116. Donations are greatly appreciated.

We are offering an Adult Education class in the daytime, taught by Rabbi Mark Sobel! Please let us know if you are interested in attending a daytime class at Temple by contacting the Temple Office at 818 843-4787.

September was a month for meeting new friends, reconnecting with those we met last year and welcoming our newly opened prekindergarten class, as well as our music specialist and enrichment cooking teacher. We've celebrated Shabbat each week and enjoyed our time with Rabbi Mark during the Holidays. TBE's littlest learners especially loved when Rabbi came to the classrooms - whether it was to help make dough for challah or to blow the Shofar.

The TBE Sisterhood met on Sunday, Oct.1. The meeting was well attended with much participation and enthusiasm on the part of the attendees.

The Honey boxes were sold through Sukkot. Any unsold boxes were given to Kyle Orlemann to give to the Jewish Military Active or Veterans. Shirley Abramson did a terrific job of managing this project. Many thanks.

Ron Kurtz has generously donated 20 tickets to the Sisterhood for "A Catskill Hanukkah." We have tickets for the Sunday, November 26th, 5:00 PM performance at the EI Portal Theatre in NOHO. The tickets are $20 each. Contact Fran Bourne Johnson, (617) 386-3835 or franbourne@gmail.com. Please send a check made out to TBE Sisterhood, and write "A Catskill Hanukkah" in the ledger line. Please send it to Iris Abrams, Treasurer, TBE Sisterhood, Temple Beth Emet, 600 N. Buena Vista Street, Burbank, CA 91505.

The Sisterhood will be gift wrapping at Barnes and Noble Bookstore over the holiday next month. We will also be participating in a Hanukkah Celebration, as well, on Tuesday, December 18th at McCrory Hall in Sunland. More details about both activities in the December issue of the Chai Times.

The Sisterhood wishes everyone a very happy Thanksgiving.

Regards,

Fran Bourne Johnson
TBE Sisterhood President

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

We have a wonderful Jewish Book Club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, November 28, 2017 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: Beyond the Ashes by Rabbi Yonassan Gershon

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

Synopsis: Is it possible that people living today died in the Holocaust? Rabbi Yonassan Gershon presents compelling evidence that supports this seemingly impossible phenomenon. Based on the stories of people he counselled, the author sheds new light on the subject of reincarnation and the divinity of the human soul. In addition to the fascinating case histories, Rabbi Gershon includes information on Jewish teachings regarding the afterlife, karmic healing, and prophecies.

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.
