"The Temple With A Heart"

"Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey..." Exodus 33:3

On January 14th, we left for Israel. I am sure all 14 of us travelers will have stories to tell about Israel, the people, the places and the trip, but I want to talk about the group who went. No names, but I am sure you will know who I am speaking about.

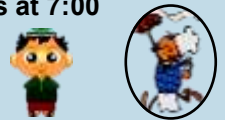

During this past year has, as Jim Mattis, Z"L, would put it the Angel of Death has not been kind to us. Not to our congregation, but also not kind to San Bernardino, or Paris or Israel. In fact, when we started making arrangements for the trip to Israel, several members, all ladies, expressed concerns over safety. Richard Eisenberg, our tour contact and I had many discussions over whether to come or postpone. The comment that touched each of us was when he said, "If the violence is so bad that people are staying in their hotels and not going from their rooms to see Jerusalem (for example), I am going to cancel the tour."

Once the group, 2-to-1 made up of women, heard that, they were relieved, NO, eager to go. One participant's only concern was that she would slow up the group and keep them from seeing everything. We told her, we are a unit. We go together and if we go a little slower, more to concentrate on seeing. Really, how many of us lose sight of the beauty of the small in our haste to see the grandiose. To me that is not a grand thing to do. Another member of the group said this was on her 'Bucket list' and she would be “darned if a little terrorist would stand in the way of her dreams!” Another took to learning Hebrew with an app (application) on her phone. I didn’t have the heart to tell her that, after 26 years of British occupation, most Israelis would rather practice their English on Americans than help us speak Hebrew. Oh well. Another couple in the group were newly married and this was their honeymoon. They decided to come with us because another group member told the couple how caring we are. In fact, the name of the tour is “TBE of Burbank, the Temple with a heart Israel trip.”

As Rabbi and co-leader of the trip, I received some pretty interesting emails about Israel, the tour itself, the accommodations and medical situations. We found out answers and as soon as we shared them, it seemed, the fear dissipated.

This month the world celebrates Valentine’s Day, a holiday dedicated to love. The group I led to Israel, showed love in the most basic manner, with courage, with determination and their love for the land of our people, serves as a beacon for the rest of to do what we should. If we want to give those who would destroy Israel victory. Don’t come with us the next time. But if we want to defeat those same villains, keep signing up to go to Israel. Our young people have the Birthright Program. Maybe we need to organize a middle aged trip to Israel, so more will go. We could call it ‘Birth tight’ for all the muscle spasms we will get, but it will be worth it! In recent months, different tour groups have cancelled out. I must reiterate, not our group! From that first reassurance, our ladies never looked over their shoulders or back. It was forward ahead and let us absorb all that Israel has to offer. And the stories we will tell you!!!!

B’ahava,

Rabbi Mark

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE – February 2018

Those of you who receive a monthly paycheck may have had a pleasant surprise this month. Under the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act withholding rates have been revised and the amount of Federal Income Tax withheld has gone down for a lot of people.

One of the major changes in the tax law is the elimination of the personal exemption and the doubling of the standard deduction. The standard deduction for individuals is now $12,000.00 and for married couples it is $24,000.00. People who have itemized their deductions in the past may find that they no longer need to and that the standard deduction is more favorable.

For those who do itemize, one of the deductions allowed is charitable contributions. If you do not itemize, however, you do not get the deduction. Charitable organizations expect a substantial reduction in contributions because many people will not be itemizing their deductions and thus their contributions will no longer be partially offset by a reduction in their taxes.

Temple Beth Emet is a charitable institution. The membership dues you pay and the other donations you make are deductible on your income tax return if you itemize. (Standard disclaimer: Please consult with your tax advisor to determine whether your donation is tax deductible in whole or in part. Nothing in this communication is intended to constitute legal or tax advice). Due to the increase in the standard deduction, your contributions to Temple Beth Emet may no longer reduce your income tax.

The obligation to financially support Jewish institutions does not, however, depend upon the deductibility of the contribution. As Rabbi Shawn Zevit wrote in A Torah of Money (Philadelphia: Jewish Reconstructionist Federation 2000) “Jewish tradition views money as an expression of values and a commitment to godly action in the world. Money is a reflection of our priorities, which in turn reflect the values articulated by a communal mission statement. Although they may seem to be mutually exclusive, money and spirituality are in a dynamic relationship in congregations”.

Rabbi Jordan M. Ottenstein is the senior rabbi at Congregation Dor Tamid in Atlanta observed: “Whether it is your synagogue, other institutions in the Jewish community, or charities and service organizations around [our local community] and the country, it is important to remember that, as we open our hearts to the world around us, we can find ways to create a culture of giving: the giving of our money and time, to be sure, but also the giving of our hearts.”

This month, we celebrate Valentine's Day, a day dedicated to love and affairs of the heart. What better time to remind ourselves to be giving of our money and time, but also our hearts to sustain Temple Beth Emet the Temple With a Heart?”

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

After a relaxing Winter Break, our Religious School students resumed their studies during the month of January. On Sunday, January 21st, there was a meeting of all parents of students in our 6/7 and Bar/Bat Mitzvah classes to inform them about the process leading up to Bar/Bat Mitzvah and what to expect from an academic, planning and financial perspective. Thanks to Rabbi Mark, Barbara Bolter, and our Office Manager, Victoria Gaffney for their participation - we hope to make this an annual event.

The following week, our students celebrated the holiday of Tu B'Shevat. Our 2-3 and 4-5 students planted apple seedlings in observance of the holiday and each of our classes was presented with a basket of traditional holiday fruits by the members of the Religious School Parents Association.

Our more senior members of the congregation are invited to join us on the morning of Sunday, February 25th at 10:30 AM to bake hamantaschen for our first Grandparents and Special Friends Day. Religious School students have been encouraged to invite those grandparents, who are able to attend, to join with them in making a craft for the upcoming Purim holiday and this would be a great opportunity for other interested members of the congregation to form a bond with our kids. After the Grandparents and Special Friends Day event (baking, etc.), everyone is invited to stay and join the Temple Sisterhood at 12:30 PM in Blum Hall to hear Rebbitzin Mina Sobel discuss Purim and the Persian Jews' experience in Iran. It promises to be both enlightening and enjoyable.

Our 2017/18 Adult Education Series, "What Does It Mean To Be Jewish" continues to be quite well attended. After an interesting discussion about the role of Jewish ethics at our January session, our next class will be held on Tuesday, February 13th at 7:30 PM and we will be exploring the question of "Does It Take Kabbalah?" The series continues through the month of March and is open to all Temple members as well as any other interested members of the community; there is a requested donation of $5 per person for each class. Please join us for this lively and thought provoking series.

A Place for Learning

We are offering an Adult Education class in the daytime, taught by Rabbi Mark Sobel! Please let us know if you are interested in attending a daytime class at Temple by contacting the Temple Office at 818 843-4787.

Rain or shine, we're looking forward to a great 2018!

The Sisterhood membership continues to grow. We are enjoying the addition of new members who bring new energy and ideas to the Sisterhood. Our current members continue to work hard on Sisterhood projects. Please save Sunday, April 22nd to attend the annual Sisterhood Parking Lot Sale. If you are interested in participating, let us know. This is a good time to clean out your closets. The proceeds of the sale will go to the Sisterhood. Any leftover items will be donated. Remember, there are always treasures to be found at these events. There will be more information in next month's edition of the Chai Times.

TBE Sisterhood is honored to have Rebbitzin Mina Sobel, as our featured speaker at a Sisterhood luncheon on Sunday, February 25th at 12:30 PM in Blum Hall. Mina will be speaking on Purim and the Persian Jews' experience in Iran. The Sisterhood will provide a light lunch, and the Religious School will be serving hamantaschen that they baked.

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail and give me the following information:

The name of the Student;

Class Level;

Address;

Name of the University, and;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. I look forward hearing from you!

Temple Beth Emet - Book Club

We have a wonderful Jewish Book Club at Temple!

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at TBE

When: Tuesday, February 26, 2018 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss: The Ritual Bath by Faye Kellerman

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and Amazon.com, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Cost of Participating: Free!

Synopsis: Detective Peter Decker of the LAPD is stunned when he gets the report. Someone has shattered the sanctuary of a remote yeshiva community in the California hills with an unimaginable crime. One of the women was brutally raped as she returned from the mikvah, the bathhouse where the cleansing ritual is performed.

The crime was called in by Rina Lazarus, and Decker is relieved to discover that she is a calm and intelligent witness. She is also the only one in the sheltered community willing to speak of this unspeakable violation. As Rina tries to steer Decker through the maze of religious laws, the two grow closer. But before they get to the bottom of this horrendous crime, revelations come to light that are so shocking, they threaten to come between the hard-nosed cop and the deeply religious woman with whom he has become irrevocably linked.

The Book Club will meet on the 4th Tuesday of every month. The group will discuss what the next book will be at the meeting, as well as the format of the discussion group.

You may contact Fran at franbourne@gmail.com or call her at (617) 306-3835.

Fran Bourne-Johnson is enthusiastically inviting you to attend. She will warmly welcome the readers and a lively discussion is expected. The book she is recommending is both exciting and interesting. What a great way to socialize AND improve your mind! Let's get together and share a great reading experience.
