"That which is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbor" Rabbi Hillel

Shortly after the murder of the innocent worshippers in Christ church, New Zealand, I was asked by the Burbank Human Relations Council to speak before the Burbank city Council. I had been thinking also about things that had been said about our people and what people were saying about members of other belief systems. Below is my speech before the City Council.

Madam Mayor, Members of the City Council, Friends, once again I come before you in grief and in mourning. Innocent people who were meditating and praying in God's holy place have been murdered.

A racist, white supremacist has taken 50 more from us. How many more will die because members of other religions violently attack different belief systems as inauthentic?

A short few days ago, it was Muslim worshippers in New Zealand, weeks ago it was Christians in Nigeria, Months ago Jews in Pittsburgh. All of us must share some guilt when we only look at the shooting of guns and not the explosion of evil words.

Truly, we all know that the actions of those evil, cowardly attackers was not the beginning of their racism but, tragically for their pure innocent victims, the final act of bigotry before their death.

It is well known that the creation of our world began with utterances. "Let there be light!" And there was light!

The Bible and the Koran tells us this. It teaches us that words create. How we create and what we create depends upon our use of words. In fact, in Hebrew, the term 'HaDvareem', means both "the things" and THE WORDS.

Of late, people's words have been harmful and hurtful and definitely hateful.

It is not enough to ban automatic weapons or to make greater restrictions on firearm ownership which New Zealand has done.

We, as individuals, must go to the source of this hate, HATE SPEECH ! When you practice hate speech you, in essence, arm those with the power to destroy lives, not just with bullets but with words.

We were always taught that ACTIONS Speak Louder Than Words!

That is NOT true. In this age of instant communication Words speak out much louder. In New Zealand 50 innocent souls were killed in a matter of minutes, NOW thousands, maybe millions of sinful souls, see and hear the awesome and awful power of HATE. We must do more than just outlaw tools of physical murder, we must ascend to forbidding SYLLABLES that destroy souls. In the Jewish Prayer book is a unique prayer. Unique because it refers to God as my God_ "Elohi", not our God, "Elohainu", a rarity in the Jewish religion. Why?

Because it is so important that each of us takes full responsibility for our own words!

The prayer begins "MY GOD guard my tongue from evil. And my lips from speaking guile"

It ends, "May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer".

Not once, but twice we appeal to God to help us speak in a loving, caring MANNER.

I IMPLORE ALL OF US HERE AND THOSE WATCHING AND LISTENING TO SPREAD THE WORD. Hate speech MUST END.

Every day I pray to guard my words! Let us all vow to do the same.

Just this morning I saw a photograph of Mucad Ibrahim, the three year old Somali young man who was about to worship with his father and brother, when the gunman entered the mosque. He ran to greet the gunman unaware that his actions would lead to his death. He thought love! He acted love! And the results of hate destroyed his love.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - April 2019

When the Israelites left Egypt they were 12 tribes traveling together. They all had the same destination, the Promised Land, but they also were concerned with their own clan. Synagogues are a lot like that. We all have the same overall goal, a thriving community, but there are distinct "clans," each with areas of primary interest to them. At Temple Beth Emet, we have always known that our family consisted of a Religious School clan and a Friday Night clan. It isn't that the two factions did not overlap somewhat, but a lot of religious school families hardly ever came to Shabbat services, and a lot of the Friday Night regulars had no reason to come to Temple when religious school was in session.

For years we have tried to think of ways to bring the two clans together, with varying levels of success. Barbara Bolter suggested a monthly pizza dinner before Shabbat services, and our Pizza Night/Family Services on the first Shabbat of the month is our most successful and enduring effort. Still, a certain degree of separation has existed. Add to that the Sisterhood, which is constantly working to support the Temple. It seems, many in the Sisterhood have observed, that the younger women weren't interested in joining them. And then we started our Preschool, with a whole other group of families. We all shared the building, but we weren't sharing experiences.

That may finally be changing. Our Religious School Parents Association, under the leadership of Cherie Rye, and our Sisterhood, under the leadership of Fran Bourne Johnson, have been working together, sometimes even meeting on the same mornings. We were even able to bring all of our clans together at our Hanukkah celebration, with everyone participating in our "Temple Beth Emet's Got Talent" show.

Our Preschool families have become more active in Temple affairs. Recently, a group of Preschool parents met with the Preschool oversight committee to make clear their strong feelings regarding our search for a new Preschool Director to take over when Elaine Rosenfield retires in June. We listened to what they had to say, and they and we are both happy to announce that Hayley Wood will be our new Preschool Director. Hayley has been with the Preschool since before the beginning, helping Elaine to get our Preschool launched. We look forward to working with her to continue building connections with the Preschool families and increase their participation in our Temple community.

It is wonderful to see all aspects of our Temple family interacting and participating in Temple life.

I mentioned our Sisterhood earlier. They are a remarkable group and our Temple really could not survive without their hard work and dedication. Last month, they organized a wonderful Purim Dinner, and this month they are holding their annual Parking Lot Sale on Sunday, April 7, and are managing our Community Seder on Saturday, April 27. Make sure to check out the flyers for these events in this issue of the Chai Times.

On Tuesday, May 7, the Burbank Human Relations Council will present the 2019 Days of Remembrance, our community commemoration of the Holocaust. This year the program is hosted by American Lutheran Church, 755 N. Whitnall Highway in Burbank. The program starts at 7:15 PM. It is always a moving and inspiring evening, and I hope many of us will attend, not only to keep the memory of the victims of the Holocaust alive, but also to show the unity and strength of the Jewish community in Burbank.

Wishing you all a chag Pesach sameach, a very Happy Passover!

-- Ira L. Goldstein, President

First off, THANK YOU to all the parent and child volunteers and helpers that we had for the Purim Carnival! Thank you also to the families came, brought visitors and encouraged the kids to enjoy themselves, and we also greatly appreciate the older kids for all their efforts in setting up, running the games and cleaning up! It was a big effort.

Here is a message from Rabbi from the day after the Carnival:

Dear Purim Carnival Helpers:

Words do not convey all of my gratitude for what all of you did yesterday. It was a very successful carnival and really showed the Temple Beth Emet spirit. Whether it was the setup, administering the face painting, the slime, or the games centers, it was done with joy and commitment. Once again from the 5th grade, 6-7th grades, confirmation or teachers or adult volunteers, you did shloach manot, meaning you sent a portion of yourself to the entire Temple family.

Kol H'Kavod alechem (all the honors go to you),

Rabbi Mark

PS. If you know of anyone I have not sent this email to who deserves a thank you, please send their email address to me so I can send it personally. Thank you in advance.

PPS. Josh , please relate this message to Eli for me!

Also, now is the time to clean out your closets for the Annual Temple Yard Sale, sponsored by Sisterhood! You can bring items to donate to the sale: clothing, shoes, books, jewelry, toys, household items, etc., are all welcome! Your donated items will help support the Temple! Please plan on picking up whatever doesn't sell. . Please no heavy or excessively bulky items. Please contact the Rabbi or Sisterhood with questions.

Regarding Family Promise, the Religious School Parents are planning to help provide meals for Saturday, We'll plan who will bring what food items via email. Here is information from Jeannie, our Family Promise organizer, regarding the event:

Hello Fabulous Family Promise Participants - We have two families we will be supporting when our turn starts on Sunday. There are two moms plus one 17 year old son, and 3 other children ages 8 to 11. One of the families is allergic to nuts so please have nuts as an optional add on, if that will be part of your meal. One of the moms is also gluten intolerant and I will be providing her with food items so as not to add that to your plates, so to speak. Please be at St. David's church by 5:30 if you need to prepare your items. This cycle, we will be serving dinner at 6pm to our hungry families.

There is another family that is being considered for the program so if they are added during our time, I will absolutely let you know as soon as I know. Let's welcome our newest group of volunteers: Religious School Parents....

Thanks for all the love and support you give these families! You inspire me!
Jeannie

Our next RSPA meeting is April 7th at 9:00am.

Cherie

As I kept thinking about what to say this month and how to caption these pictures, I realized I don't need any words. Just look at the joy that is Temple Beth Emet Preschool. We are enrolling now for September. We have limited space available in our two, three and Pre-Kindergarten classes. If you or someone you know is looking for a nurturing and inclusive play-based preschool, please send them our way. We can be reached at (818) 861-7660 or preschool@templebethemet.com

Leviticus 19 says it most profoundly. "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as you love yourself".

We must do this every moment of every day. If you cannot do it for yourself, do it in honor of the two off duty rural patrolmen who crashed their car into the gunman's and took him into custody. They did it for strangers. We MUST do love for the CHILDREN, both ours and the children we may never know. For the Mucads, the Moshes, the Marys, the Miquels, the Amilia's, the Emma's, the Rachels, the Saras and the Sallys!

It is our God Given Task! Nothing is more important than saving lives.

The world today is one neighborhood.

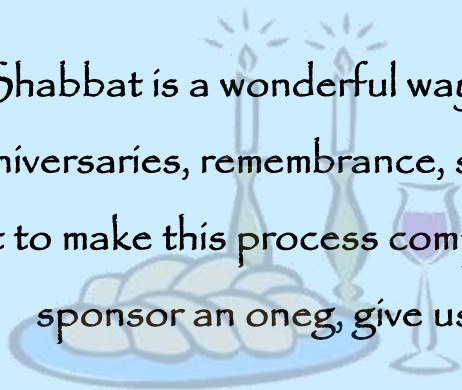

God, please make the world more like Burbank.

B'ahava, Shalom, Salaam, Paz,

Rabbi Mark

Sponsoring an Oneg Shabbat is a wonderful way to honor or celebrate an event -
- Bar Mitzvahs, anniversaries, remembrance, simcha, or simply because it's Shabbat! We try not to make this process complicated, so if you would like to sponsor an oneg, give us a call!

It's been another busy month for the Sisterhood. The Temple had its annual Purim celebration. Thanks to Billy Berman for his delicious macaroni and cheese. Thanks to Anne Berman for her contributions and Jay Geisenheimer for her contributions. Please, if I have forgotten anyone, thank you too.

The Sisterhood members were very happy to support and help out at the Religious School's annual Purim Carnival. A great time was had by both the children and the adults!

The Sisterhood continues to support Family Promise which starts Sunday, March 31 and goes for a week. The Sisterhood will be providing dinner on Wednesday, April 3. Thanks to Susie Berman who coordinates the Sisterhood's participation.

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail to office@templebethemet.com and give the following information:

The name of the Student;

If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. We look forward hearing from you!

What is the book we will read and discuss: Irena's Children: The Extraordinary Story of the Woman Who Saved 2,500 Children from the Warsaw Ghetto* by Tilar J. Mazzeo

From "New York Times" bestselling author Tilar Mazzeo comes the extraordinary and long forgotten story of Irena Sendler the female Oskar Schindler who took staggering risks to save 2,500 children from death and deportation in Nazi-occupied Poland during World War II now adapted for a younger audience.

Irena Sendler was a young Polish woman living in Warsaw during World War II with an incredible story of survival and selflessness. And she's been long forgotten by history.

Until now.

This young readers edition of "Irena's Children" tells Irena's unbelievable story set during one of the worst times in modern history. With guts of steel and unfaltering bravery, Irena smuggled thousands of children out of the walled Jewish ghetto in toolboxes and coffins, snuck them under overcoats at checkpoints, and slipped them through the dank sewers and into secret passages that led to abandoned buildings, where she convinced her friends and underground resistance network to hide them.

In this heroic tale of survival and resilience in the face of impossible odds, Tilar Mazzeo and adapter Mary Cronk Farrell share the true story of this bold and brave woman, overlooked by history, who risked her life to save innocent children from the horrors of the Holocaust."

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle, Amazon.com or Alibris, as well as local libraries. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.
