V' Shinantam Lebaneka! (You will make an Impression upon your Children) Deuteronomy 6

This month, an era in the life of the Temple Beth Emet Education Community as well as the Temple itself comes to an end. Elaine Rosenfeld is retiring as Pre-School Director. She actually wanted to retire last year but was convinced to stay on and see the birth of the 4 year old's classroom. Now we have classes of 2 year olds, 3 year olds and Pre-K preschool students.

Elaine when we needed you were there to get us started. Then you brought three excellent and, as the parents said, "loving, caring teachers". In addition you called for teacher assistants to help the children, especially the special needs ones. You watched, fretted, demanded and loved the Temple's Pre-Schoolers.

Once again we are thankful and you have made our Temple blessed with your efforts.

While we may not have agreed with all of your ideas, and attitudes towards accomplishing your goals, we have never doubted your determination to make the TEMPLE BETH EMET Day School, THE BEST IT CAN BE!

We know that even after you have left us, you will be thinking how I can get new equipment to make our Preschool even better.

On a personal note, Thank you, you taught me much that as the Temple Educational Director, I will be able to share with Hayley, the New Preschool director, as well as the Teachers of ALL the classes.

One of the songs you taught me was "There's a Dinosaur Knocking at My Door".

Please allow me to paraphrase:

Don't be a Dinosaur Knocking' at our Door,

Wanting to do Shabbat with us!

Come Right on in

We'll be Welcomin'

Shabbat together Sitting on the Floor.

B'ahava,
Rabbi Mark

Sponsoring an Oneg Shabbat is a wonderful way to honor or celebrate an event -
- Bar Mitzvahs, anniversaries, remembrance, simcha, or simply because it's Shabbat! We try not to make this process complicated, so if you would like to sponsor an oneg, give us a call!

"...for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."
Isaiah 56:7

This month's Chai Times is (again) a few days late, but with good reason. I have been doing the editing of the Chai Times for several months, and this month I was out of town the last couple of days of May and the first couple of days of June.

Diane and I were in Durham, North Carolina for the Bar Mitzvah of my oldest brother Don's grandson Avery. We flew in Thursday, and Friday evening Avery led most of the Shabbat Evening service (with the assistance of the Rabbi, but mostly on his own). Avery gave his speech Friday night and on Saturday he led the Shacharit and Torah services. Shacharit is the second section of a service, and follows Pesukei dezimra, or introductory hymns and prayers. Our Friday Shabbat services follow this same format, as we read Torah of Friday nights as we have no Saturday service. Avery's father Steve led the Musaf, or additional service. We do Musaf on the High Holidays.

Everyone did a wonderful job. My only disappointment was that the announcements were given by the Temple Vice President instead of my niece Debbie, mother of the Bar Mitzvah boy and President of the Congregation. But she has enough to do that week and during the service, so she deserved a break. For the record, all Congregation Presidents deserve a break from time to time.

As is the custom, there were several aliyot for the Torah reading, and one went to my brother Don and his wife Sheila, grandparents of the Bar Mitzvah. Don has had a lifetime of health challenges and currently uses a walker or wheelchair. During the service he used a wheelchair to reach the bimah for the aliyah.

Near the end of the service, the Rabbi took a moment to mention my brother. Beth El Congregation of Durham is nearing the completion of a major renovation. In fact, just the week before the congregation marched their Torahs from the church where they had been holding services back to their sanctuary. The Rabbi noted proudly that the new sanctuary floor was flat, without a raised bimah, and hoped to one day have a Torah reading table that could be lowered to accommodate those in a wheelchair. Diane and I turned toward each other with a nod and a smile.

You see, some 40 years ago, when our synagogue was being built, our then Rabbi William Kramer insisted that the sanctuary be built with a flat floor, no raised bimah, as to be accommodating and welcoming to everyone. Some 20 years ago, our Rabbi Mark Sobel found a drafting table with a top that raised and lowered during his treasure-seeking haunts. The table looked rather industrial, and a little worn, and the Temple President at the time detested it. Rabbi Mark approached George Davis, who crafted a beautiful wooden cladding and trim. When the Temple President saw it, she wistfully agreed it could stay.

I am glad to see Temple Beth El begin to address making participation in Jewish worship more accessible, and I am proud that our Temple recognized the need to do so years before.

Being the Temple With a Heart means more than just being friendly, welcoming, and loving, it also means really being inclusive of all who come to us and being mindful to remove barriers of entry to our community, both physical and social. I think we do a pretty good job of that at Temple Beth Emet, but we should also continue to seek to be enlightened as to the challenges faced by others and willing to learn to help overcome those challenges.

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

As we begin our fourth year at Temple Beth Emet Preschool in September and our camp session in just a few weeks, I am so excited to step into the role of preschool director.

I feel both a sense of home as well as pride in the strides we've made since the opening of our preschool just a few short years ago. Working closely with our now former director, Elaine Rosenfield, we took the preschool from six children to the need for three classrooms.

Elaine has created a loving and caring community of teachers, parents, and children that I look forward to continuing to foster. I will follow in her footsteps by providing a flourishing learning environment that is both joyful and challenging for our preschoolers.

Using the tools and skills I have gained throughout my seventeen years of early childhood education, I will work hard to ensure that our school continues to grow and thrive.

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail to office@templebethemet.com and give the following information:

The name of the Student;

Name of the University, and;
If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. We look forward hearing from you!

Temple Beth Emet Book Club

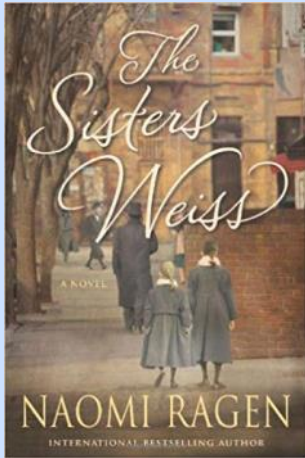

Conducted by Fran Bourne-Johnson.

Where: Blum Hall at Temple Beth Emet of Burbank

When: June 25, 2019 7:00PM to 8:30 PM

What is the book we will read and discuss:

In 1950's Brooklyn, sisters Rose and Pearl Weiss grow up in a loving but strict ultra-Orthodox family, never dreaming of defying their parents or their community's unbending and intrusive demands. Then, a chance meeting with a young French immigrant turns Rose's world upside down, its once bearable strictures suddenly tightening like a noose around her neck. In rebellion, she begins to live a secret life – a life that shocks her parents when it is discovered. With nowhere else to turn, and an overwhelming desire to be reconciled with those she loves, Rose tries to bow to her parents' demands that she agree to an arranged marriage. But pushed to the edge, she commits an act so unforgivable, it will exile her forever from her innocent young sister, her family, and all she has ever known.

Forty years later, pious Pearl's sheltered young daughter Rivka suddenly discovers the ugly truth about her Aunt Rose, the outcast, who has moved on to become a renowned photographer. Inspired, but nave and reckless, Rivka sets off on a dangerous adventure that will stir up the ghosts of the past, and alter the future in unimaginable ways for all involved.

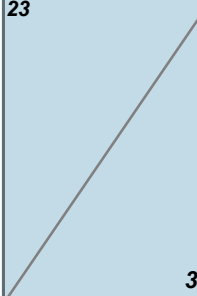

Powerful, page-turning and deeply moving, Naomi Ragen's The Sisters Weiss is an unforgettable examination of loyalty and betrayal; the differences that can tear a family apart and the invisible bonds that tie them together.

Where to get the book: The book is available on Kindle and in print at Amazon.com and other retailers. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.
