"Let everyone who is zealous for the law and supports the covenant come with me!" (1Maccabees2:27)

I find Mattathias' quote a little strange especially coming from a member of the Kohanim (ancient priests). You would expect God to be first followed by the covenant of the people. But the civil war that was raging between those who were proud of and willing to fight for their Judaism and their land verses those who felt that Greek culture was the best involved Judeans of all commitments, some religious and some we could call more secular.

What does it mean to be 'zealous for the Law'? Which covenant? There are 613 Mitzvoth we are supposed to do. The Law that Mattathias is talking about is not the ritual law but the law that says we are to 'defend all our people at all costs' we are to preserve Judaism and defeat the enemy, whether it be foreign or domestic, Jew or non-Jew. The preservation of who we are is paramount. Isaiah 49:8 says it well, "I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land. "

Later on this month we will celebrate Hanukkah. Eight days of ceremony, lighting the menorah, playing dreidels and, remembering the story of a brave band of Jews who stood up for our people and defeated the strongest army of its time.

For me though, there is another dimension to Hanukkah. It is the time of mourning. My father passed away in 2006 during the second day of Hanukkah.

I like to think that my father lived the quote of Mattathias,

My dad believed in the Jewish people and America and God. He wasn't a synagogue going person. When it was time for Yizkor during Sukkot, Passover and Shavuot, and he was working, he would organize the Jewish clerks (he worked for the USPS) into a minyan so those who needed to could fulfill the obligation of remembering those who had passed away.

He saw the covenant of the people as one involving all Jews. He strove to bring Jews together and not put up artificial walls between them.

He was proud of his two heritages. He used to tell me that his parents, my Bubbe and Zeyde were true Zionists. The only thing that kept my Zeyde from going to the Land of Israel in 1911 on Aliyah, was his love for his childhood sweetheart, my Bubbie and that when he found her here in America, he married her.

My father loved America because of its Freedom! Proudly placing the menorah in the Window for all to see, he felt was an example of the freedom our people feel here in America. He never knew that placing the menorah in the window goes back 2,000 years to the Babylonian Talmud, written after we were exiled from Israel.

We are commanded to show the world that we are proud with what the Maccabees did. And we are to be Zealous for the covenant! A further aspect of our covenant with God and fellow Jews states "We are a light unto the nations." The menorah light in our windows enlightens the world to the fact that we are as proud today as we were then to proclaim our Judaism and to defend it.

Not necessarily as the Maccabees did with swords and shields but with menorahs and windows.

So, when you put your electric menorah in the window (safety always takes precedent over practice), I have a request. Each night think of another aspect of your rededication to our people.

First night: Remember the Miracle of Hanukkah, the candle and the Maccabee war where a group of farmers, clerks and the like defeated the Armies of Antiochus.

Second night: Recall the freedoms we possess in America and how it has rescued our people.

Third night: Repeat to your family the words of Mattathias” All who are for the covenant follow me”.

Fourth night Rejoice with your family the wonderful glow of the Hanukkiah in your window and how it shines for your neighbors to see.

Fifth night: Relate to the children of the family how members of the family came to America to be free as Jews.

Sixth night: Recite the blessing over the Hanukkiah, especially the ‘Al Ha Nissim paragraph’ (Available from the office)

Seventh night: Recreate the scene of the Temple being purified so people could worship there.

Eighth Night: Recount one incident where you defended your Judaism in the face of others’ bigotry and prejudice.

Please take Hanukkah as a time to rededicate your selves to our people, our history and our love for both our peoples.

B’ahavah v’Hanukkah Sameach,

Rabbi Mark

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - December 2019

After my mother died in 1998, my father, after over 50 years of marriage, became stuck in his grief. About a year after Mom died, some friends in the Jewish War Veterans introduced him to Bernice at a group day-trip to Las Vegas. My father had become a regular at the morning minyan at Temple Beth Emet of Anaheim, and those friends had warned Bernice "Abe is very religious, so be careful." They stopped for lunch and my father ordered a ham sandwich!

They found love in one another and he was transformed. Bernice was part of our family. Then Dad was diagnosed with ALS, but Bernice stayed with him and cared for him until he passed in 2001. She didn't need to do that, their relationship wasn't even that long when he first became ill, but she did. They enjoyed the time they had left together as best as they could.

After Dad passed some of her friends told her not to expect to see us again, but that wasn't the case. We remained family. We spoke often, and were always together for Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, and in January (Hanukkah always fell at the end of the semester when Diane was overloaded with writing finals and grading.) She was at our niece's wedding in Virginia and our son Jon's Bar Mitzvah.

My long-time bud Steve and his sister Tracy lived near Bernice. Steve was always part of our family. He and my dad were close after my mom passed, and after Bernice came into our lives, Steve was close with her too, as was his sister Tracy. Even Steve's neighbors got to know Bernice, and they would go to dinner and enjoyed the summer concerts put on by the city of Cypress. Bernice had her own social circle from Temple Beth Emet of Anaheim, and they became part of our lives as well. After Bernice gave up driving, Tracy would drive her to doctors appointments and shopping and their friendship deepened.

When Bernice turned 90 two years ago, her daughter felt Bernice should not be living on her own and moved Bernice to her home in North Carolina. It was more difficult to stay in touch and as time went by Bernice began to slow down and deteriorate a lot. She passed away on November 18.

Bernice and my father were "a couple" for only three years, but she was part of our lives for another 18. She was a blessing to my father and all of my family. I like to think we were all a blessing to her as well. May her memory be a blessing.

Wishing each and every one of you a very Happy Hanukkah and a wonderful 2020.

-- IRA L. GOLDSTEIN, President

ADULT EDUCATION SERIES - Presented by Rabbi Sobel

TEMPLE BETH EMET
ADULT EDUCATION SERIES 2019-2020

Presented by RABBI MARK H. SOBEL

For the 75th Anniversary year of the end of World War II, we will be examining in depth five areas of concern for

JEWS IN AMERICA

December 10, 2019 - Israel/ New and Old

January 14, 2020 - Assimilation and Integration /Separate but Equal

February 11, 2020 - Civil rights/ From All and to All

March 10, 2020 - Religiosity/ Where is G-d when we need Her?

All sessions begin at 7:00 PM—Open to the public.

In October, we started a new Mitzvah program in the preschool! We present to you our "TBE's Voluntots"...

Each month we will be participating in different charities. In the month of October the children made beautiful cards that were delivered to children at Children's Hospital. Last month we discussed how fortunate we are to have a home with a roof over our heads and yummy food to eat. The Preschoolers learned that not everybody has that! The parents donated items and the children put together "blessing bags" that were passed out to the homeless. It's never too early to start teaching little ones about the wonderful world of giving!

We have a few spots left in the preschool for this year, so if you know anyone looking...send them our way! :)

Don't Stop the Carnival, by Herman Wouk

It's every parrothead's dream: to leave behind the rat race of the workaday world and start life all over again amidst the cool breezes, sun-drenched colors, and rum-laced drinks of a tropical paradise.

It's the story of Norman Paperman, a New York City press agent who, facing the onset of middle age, runs away to a Caribbean island to reinvent himself as a hotel keeper. (Hilarity and disaster -- of a sort peculiar to the tropics -- ensue.)

Where to get the book: The book is available at Amazon.com and other retailers. Please read the book and be prepared to discuss it.

Do You Have a Son and/or Daughter In College?

Temple Beth Emet has started a program to connect with our students attending a College. We would like to help them to continue their Jewish way of life and offer them additional support. This way, they will always have an open line of communication with our Rabbi, should they have questions or need direction; and we will remind them of their link to Israel and to keep connected to the Jewish Community. After college, we hope to have them join our Temple, as an adult.

Please send an e-mail to office@templebethemet.com and give the following information:

The name of the Student;
Class Level;
Address;
Name of the University, and;
If the Student is a member of any organization or club on campus.

The Temple will send a care-package for each holiday, as a gift to the Student with a calendar of events at the Temple for each month. The Student will be invited to all events sponsored by the Temple. We would like to encourage the Student to return to the Temple as often as they wish; as the Temple would like to offer itself as a second home and place of Jewish learning. We look forward hearing from you!

You can support Temple Beth Emet with a contribution to our ongoing gofundme™ campaign. Your generosity will help us maintain and improve our facilities and help with our outreach and membership development programs.
